

Utilities Gaining Headway

Restoring Service After Damage Done By Most Severe Ice Storm in Many Years

The ice storm of a week ago took its toll in utility service, but as of today both the Missouri Public Service Co., which furnishes the electricity and the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., the phone service, have gained headway in restoring services to their customers.

Managers of both utilities, William Rich of the Missouri Public Service Co., and Tom Mullaly, of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., have nothing but praise for the local and extra employees brought into Sedalia from other districts.

The amount of damage in dollars and cents losses has not even been estimated by either company as yet, the two managers state. These losses will not be known for weeks, until the permanent repairs have been completed and damaged and destroyed materials replaced.

Mr. Mullaly, this morning, stated the storm took out all long distance lines, but as of today out of 62 lines there were only eight to be restored. On Tuesday all but 27 were stored, Wednesday all but 19 and this morning workmen started to restore the last remaining eight. Out of more than 8,000 local customers, the storm interrupted service to approximately 3,000 and of this number all but between 700 and 800 in the city have been restored to service and of the 800 rural customers, there still remains 500 phones out of service.

Now on Rural Lines

Several repair gangs started this morning on the rural lines while other gangs are working inside the city and along the long distance lines. All service, he reported, should be restored on a temporary basis within the next five or six days.

Permanent repairs are being made now in some incidences, and temporary repairs will be made permanent within a short time. The extra crews are remaining in Sedalia to assist the local repair crews in getting the entire system back on a permanent basis.

The telephone company has five supervising construction foremen; 39 construction foremen; 45 foremen, and 45 repair crews representing more than 300 workmen on the job.

These crews are from Illinois, Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri and of course several crews here in Sedalia.

Mr. Mullaly also said some customers have repaired their own telephones, and in these cases that are requested to notify the telephone company so permanent repairs can be made on the line. He also warned the customers they should not try to make temporary repairs as it could be possible high tension electric lines might be lying across a cable and could cause serious injury or even death.

M.P.S. Co. in Good Shape

The Missouri Public Service Co. is in good shape now, Mr. Rich said today. Work has already started in getting the temporary repairs back on a permanent basis, the street lighting system is being repaired as quickly as possible, with the White Way lights down town, and some lights in East Sedalia already back in service and some sections in West Sedalia should be lighted tonight.

Two outside crews from other districts are working with the Sedalia crews in picking up the temporary repairs, running the lines and pulling up sagging wires, working over various weak spots, and hooking up lines from the power line to the house.

Mr. Rich said they are experiencing some trouble with transformers, and overloading, but this is not enough to amount to much, and can be handled within a matter of a short time.

He also said he expected the entire electrical system would be back on a permanent basis within two or three weeks.

National Mourning

ATHENS, Dec. 29.—(P)—Greece today observed a day of national mourning for 28,000 Greek children the government says have been abducted by Communist-led guerrillas.

The children now are held in countries behind the iron curtain. Queen Frederika and U. S. Ambassador Henry F. Grady joined in appeals to world opinion to force the return of the children to Greece.

Vice President Meant Nothing To Cab Driver

NORFOLK, Va., Dec. 29.—(P)—When the stout, worried gentleman in the sporty convertible asked cab driver Oscar Osmund the way from Little Creek to Norfolk yesterday, he got his answer.

Not, however, before Osmund had pressed him into service as an assistant in the greasy job of checking the oil in his cab.

That job accomplished, Osmund led the gentleman and his lady driver to a Norfolk ferry dock. He got a five dollar bill for his pains.

Then he found out just who the assistant oil-checker was. It was Vice-President Alben Barkley. The lady driver was Mrs. Barkley. En route to Washington, they'd lost their way near Little Creek amphibious base.

Osmund wasn't impressed. "Who's Vice-President Barkley?" he asked.

Forrest Smith Will Not Run For US Senate

Denies Truman is Giving Support to Any One Candidate

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 29.—(P)—Gov. Forrest Smith reiterated today he will not be a candidate for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Republican Forrest C. Donnell.

The state's chief executive, here for a governors' conference on the threatened Southwestern Bell Telephone company strike, also denied that President Truman is supporting any one candidate for the Democratic nomination for the post.

Meanwhile Franklin E. Reagan, St. Louis attorney, took off at top speed in his bid for the Democratic nomination.

Asked by a reporter whether there was any chance he might make the race, Gov. Smith said: "I wouldn't consider it. I have said I would not be a candidate under any circumstances. I intend to finish out my term as governor."

Respects to President

Smith said that when he went to Kansas City to pay his respects to the President earlier this week, Mr. Truman expressed hope everyone could agree on one man for the nomination and thus avoid a party fight.

The Governor said he gave the President the names of four possible candidates—Reagan, Lt. Gov. James T. Blair, Jr., former Congressman Thomas C. Hennings, Jr., of St. Louis, and state Sen. Emery W. Allison of Rolla.

Smith declared neither he nor the President agreed to back any one of the four men discussed.

Made Political Circuits
Reagan said he already has made the political circuits in 70 Missouri counties and is satisfied with what he learned.

"I have been endorsed by 60 country newspapers and a recent poll among Democratic county chairmen shows there is more preference for me than all the others." (Please Turn To Page 4, Col. 6)

Forced From Home By Forest Fire

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Dec. 29.—(P)—A brush fire that raged for more than two hours last night forced Loretta Young and her three children from their suburban home.

Before it was brought under control by 300 firefighters, the blaze threatened several large residences, advancing at one point to within 30 feet of two homes. Householders played streams of water from garden hoses over their roofs as winds carried sparks over a wide area.

Miss Young and her children spent the night at the home of a friend. Her husband, radio executive Tom Lewis, returned to help battle the flames.

Packaging Machine Corp. Sues Moberly Residents

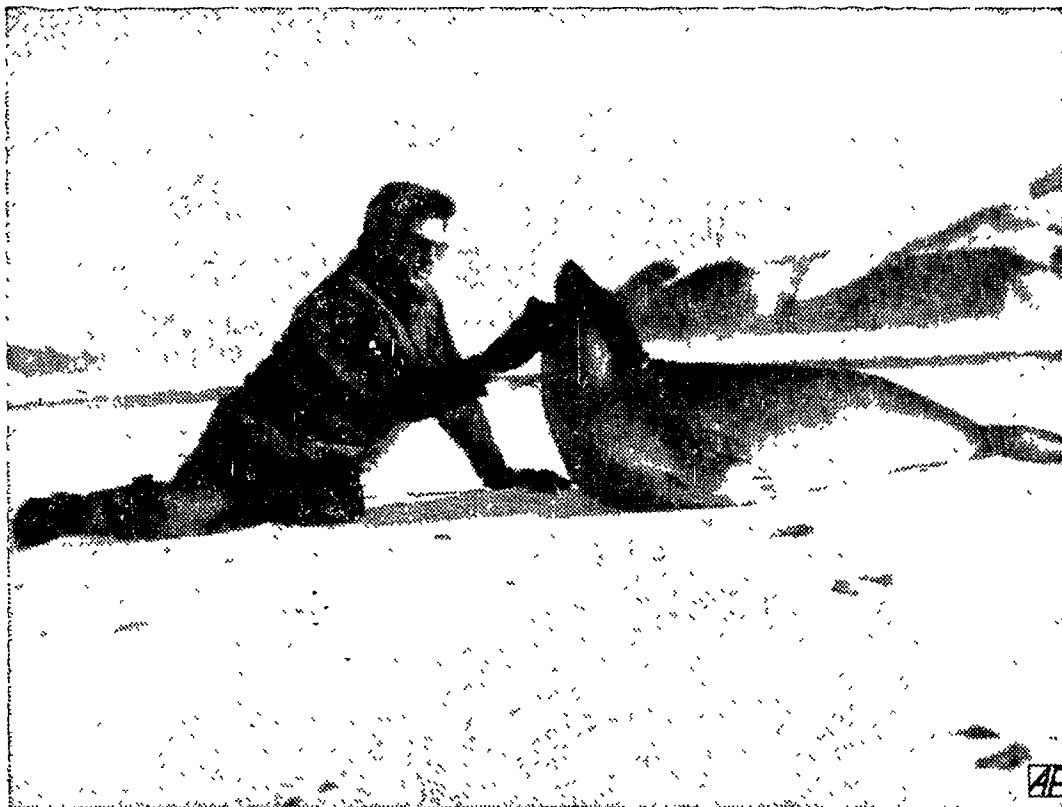

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 29.—(P)—The A-B-C Packaging Machine Corp. of Quincy, Ill., has filed a $500,000 suit against a Moberly, Mo., group that includes 79 individuals.

U. S. Marshal Otto Schoen said he is preparing to serve summons on the defendants—the individuals, the Moberly Chamber of Commerce, the Monitor-Index, two banks and five other Moberly corporations.

The suit, filed in federal court at Hannibal Dec. 20, charges the defendants failed to fulfill obligations after persuading the firm to move from Quincy to Moberly in May, 1947.

New Federal Reserve Board Report on Consumer Finances

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(P)—American families pay out as much for federal income taxes as they spend on autos, furniture and home appliances—from television sets to vacuum cleaners.

A new federal reserve board report on consumer finances today estimated that $9 of each $100 of income goes for federal income tax alone and the same amount goes into purchase of the listed items.

The board calculations, based on 1948 data obtained in a survey taken this year, figured around $76 of each $100 is taken by "other consumer expenditures."

Lumped in that category were outlays for food, housing, clothing, medical care, other essentials, state and local taxes, recreation, transportation, education, and goods from rugs to fur coats. The balance of the $100 was credited to "net saving."

Many Overspent

The federal income tax takes 13 per cent of the receipts of those in the top fifth of the income scale, the board noted. It ranges down to a one per cent share of the bottom fifth of incomes.

The reserve board figured that nearly one-third of the nation's 50,500,000 "spending units"—meaning mostly families living together and pooling incomes for living costs—overspent their 1948 incomes.

But six out of the 100 broke even—partly because they had no nest egg to draw upon or no credit available—while another 63 managed to save a part of their receipts.

How They Saved
The median or middle-sized income of America's family units in 1948 was $2,480 and savings amounted to $75 or 3.5 per cent of income. The results differed by income brackets, however, working out like this:

Families in the $6,000 a year bracket saved $610 or about ten per cent of their income. For $3,750 incomes, savings were $235 or six per cent; for $2,000 incomes, $85 or four per cent. For lesser incomes, no savings.

Car Into Creek; Driver Killed
OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 29.—(P)—A man the Oklahoma Highway Patrol identified as Roy Edgar Thornhill, 25, Maplewood, Mo., was killed about midnight last night in an accident on U. S. 66 east of Luther.

The Patrol said his automobile missed a bridge, hurled a creek, bounced from the creek bank back against the bridge, then fell nose up in the creek.

Identification of the man was made by papers in his pockets, the Patrol said. He was alone in the car, driving west.

His death was the 514th on state roads this year. In all of 1948 there were 510 highway deaths.

Special Meeting Called For Tonight

To consider matters pertaining to the proposed air academy at the Sedalia Air Base, M. D. Weathers, chairman of the Kiwanis Club Public and Business Affairs committee, has called a meeting of that committee for 7 o'clock tonight at Chamber of Commerce headquarters. Chairmen of public affairs committees of other service clubs are invited to attend.

Ham And Egg Situation Is of Concern

Midwestern Lawmakers Turn to Brannan For Answer

By Edwin B. Haakinson

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(P)—Midwestern lawmakers, flooded with mail protesting recent sharp drops in pork and egg prices, turned to the Agriculture Department today for an answer.

The egg situation in particular caused concern among farm-minded members of Congress. Eggs were reported bringing farmers as little as 20 cents a dozen; live hogs were said to be selling in the corn belt for 13 cents a pound.

"I am asking the Agriculture Department what they intend to do about it," said Senator Butler (R-Nebr.).

Rep. H. Carl Andersen (R-Minn.) wielded Secretary of Agriculture Brannan complaining of "chaos" in the egg market because of what he called government inaction. Producers in his district, the lawmaker said, "are losing approximately $15,000 daily because there is no established market for eggs."

Many Protesting

Like Butler, Anderson exhibited a high stack of telegrams and letters of protest. Similar stacks of mail were reported at the offices of Senators Gillette (D-Iowa), Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) and Gurney (R-SD).

Brannan has announced that an egg-support program will continue next year, aiming at an average price to the farmer of 37 cents a dozen for all eggs—eight cents below the national average sought this year.

Until recently the Agriculture Department has been supporting prices under an order from Congress by buying "nest-run ungraded" eggs at about 35 cents a dozen and converting them into (Please turn to Page 4, Column 6)

Ask 'Jimmy' To Resign

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29.—(P)—The Young Democrats of California have asked the resignation of James Roosevelt as Democratic national committeeman.

The entry of the eldest son of the late President into the governor's race is the reason for the action, announced William J. Tierman and Henry James, southern and northern chairmen, respectively, of the group.

"They stated yesterday that Roosevelt should resign in favor of someone who 'unfettered by ambitions for personal aggrandizement,' may devote time to unifying the party."

A spokesman for Roosevelt said "Since the group no longer is accredited by the party, no comment is necessary."

Injured Fellow Fireman

BERRYVILLE, Ark., Dec. 29.—(P)—A volunteer fireman, hurrying to a $25,000 theater fire, stuck down and seriously injured a fellow fireman with his automobile here early today.

The fire destroyed the Ozark theater on Berryville's main square.

Double Trouble

BONHAM, Texas, Dec. 29.—(P)—Policeman Ralph Shipley went out to investigate a biting dog today and fell and broke his leg while he was trying to dodge it. The dog bit Shipley on the ankle.

Schrankler Installed as Kiwanis Head

Ceremony in Charge Of Rev. E. F. Abele, Former Sedalian

Installation of 1950 officers and directors of the Sedalia Kiwanis club was conducted by the Rev. E. F. Abele, Boonville, at the club meeting in Bothwell hotel Thursday noon. He is a past president of the Sedalia club, former lieutenant governor, and long time friend of Herbert Schrankler, who for 18 years was club secretary, and now becomes president of the Sedalia club.

Herbert F. Schrankler

Other officers installed by the Rev. Mr. Abele were: vice-president, T. H. Yount; secretary, Elmer Sterling; treasurer, C. L. Hanley; directors, Frank Keyser, A. W. Kiang, Floyd Lively, Ed McLaughlin, Pinkney Miller, W. A. Schien and the Rev. H. U. Campbell. Bert Hathaway becomes past president but was unable to be at today's meeting. Mr. Schrankler presided, and announced that the final meeting of the old board of directors and committee chairmen would be held at Dan's restaurant Friday noon.

Noel Tweet Spoke

Noel Tweet, president of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, gave an explanatory talk on the importance of arousing further community interest from the standpoint of financial support of detailed work necessary in presenting to Washington officials information concerning the Sedalia Army Air base under consideration for location of an Air Academy. It is estimated that the construction project will approximate $170,000,000, and the Sedalia base is among those in top place according to information he obtained in Washington.

In honor of the arrival of a new grandson, Vice-President Yount presented cigars to the members.

Guests at the meeting were: Mrs. E. F. Abele, Mrs. H. F. Schrankler, John F. Zander, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; Kenneth Hunt with his father, Ray Hunt; Charles Wendt with E. W. McClammer; Tom Yount, St. Louis, and Keith Yount with their father T. H. Yount.

New Record For Rocket Plane

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29.—(P)—A new force plane reportedly has flown 1989 miles per hour—three times the speed of sound.

That's the new record of the air force's X-1 rocket plane, says the Los Angeles Times' aviation editor, Marvin Miles.

Quoting what he calls "reliable informants," Miles today said the X-1 had reached a speed of 1989 mile an hour in the stratosphere over Edwards air force base at Muroc Dry Lake.

The speed was given to him as fast as sound. Sonic velocity is 663 miles an hour between the altitudes of 35,000 and 100,000 feet.

Miles' story did not say who was at the controls, but presumed it was Capt. Charles Yeager or perhaps Maj. Pete Everest. A year and a half ago the air force announced that Yeager would try to fly the X-1 up to 1700 miles an hour, the maximum speed for which it was originally designed. Everest, Miles said, has been testing the rocket-powered craft.

Swaying on Luzon Island Is Sickening

An Earthquake Drives Citizens Into Streets, Fields

By Frank White

MANILA, Dec. 29.—(P)—Luzon Island swayed sickeningly all through its 500 mile length for two and a half minutes today. Almost every able bodied person fled into the streets and fields for safety.

Seismographs registered an earthquake of moderate intensity. There were no reports of casualties. The Red Cross said none had been received at headquarters.

But damage to many buildings was reported. Large cracks appeared in the walls of some of Manila's tallest structures. Occupants were warned about re-entering them until after the minor after-quake tremors were over.

Three fires started by short circuits in electric lines were extinguished quickly.

Poles Whipped Back and Forth

Telephone poles whipped back and forth at the zenith of the tremor.

Standing without support became difficult in the fourth floor office of the Associated Press in the Manila Times building. Light fixtures rocked back and forth. A steel file cabinet danced around the floor.

Traffic in narrow streets became jammed. Many abandoned their vehicles and sought safety away from the swaying tall buildings.

Three distinct shocks lasted a total of two and one-half minutes in what Manila's observatory called the Philippine capital's most severe jarring since 1934.

The first came at 11:05 a. m. (9:05 CST, Wednesday).

Occupants of downtown buildings scurried into the streets but most went back in about 15 minutes.

Stucco cascaded from the 8-story Far Eastern hotel.

Knife as Souvenir

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—(P)—A young mother, who was taught to hit first and ask questions later, early today beat off a knife attack—and wound up with the knife as a souvenir.

Mrs. Evelyn Gebhardt, 25, reported to police that a Negro approached her from behind as she was crossing a Southside railroad overpass. She was en route to work at a printing plant.

Candidates For Queen Claim Contest Was 'Fixed' Earlier

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 29.—(P)—Blonde and blue-eyed LaDene Van Wagoner, 23-year-old air line stewardess, was crowned Orange bowl queen last night. Six other candidates for the honor stalked out, claiming the contest was fixed.

Just after the crown was placed upon Miss Van Wagoner's head by movie star Colleen Townsend, the rival finalists walked out as newsboys hawked copies of a paper announcing the new queen.

The losers contended the early sale of the paper (The Florida Sun and Riviera Times) proved that earlier rumors were true—that the queen had been selected long ago despite assurances she would be chosen at last night's ball in Coral Gables county club.

They claimed the paper was on sale even before the announcement was made. The paper carried a full-page tabloid size picture of the queen, whose home is in Salt Lake City, Utah.

When the indignant losers left the scene, some other candidates and their families followed.

Quick Denial

Orange bowl committeemen were quick to deny the accusations. Orange bowl chairman Dan Mahoney could not be reached for a statement and neither could the editor of the paper, Ernie Seiler, general manager of the Orange bowl festival, had no comment.

Duke Jordan, public relations director for the Orange bowl, denied it was a stacked contest.

The protesting candidates said "a majority" of the finalists would sign a petition and present it to the Orange bowl committee.

The girls said they weren't mad at the queen, but were mad because they had been assured they still were in the contest until the queen was announced.

Those protesting included Ellen James, Barbara Eriksson, Joy Redmon, Betty Baucum, Ann Meyer and Cathy Blakley.

Hope To Avert Strike

Governors of Six States Meeting in St. Louis Today on Telephone Situation

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 29.—(P)—Governors or their representatives from six states met here today in an effort to prevent a strike by 50,000 employees of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company.

Gov. Forrest Smith of Missouri, who called the conference, said both the utility and leaders of the CIO communications workers would be asked to present their sides in the contract dispute.

He expressed hope a fair basis for settling the dispute could be found, and added:

"There is no intention on the part of the governors of working a hardship on either side in the dispute. We are vitally concerned, however, in averting a strike which would seriously affect business and the public generally in each of the six states."

Gov. Frank Carlson of Kansas said "I see nothing in this dispute that can not be settled and I am amenable to any suggestion that will protect all concerned."

Federal Called In
Federal conciliators were called in first to bring the governors up to date on the dispute. Then representatives of the union were called in.

Other governors attending are Roy J. Turner of Oklahoma and Sid McMath of Arkansas.

M. B. Morgan, commissioner of labor statistics, represented Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas. Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois was represented by Fern Rausch, the state's assistant director of labor, and George Green, chief of the Illinois conciliation and mediation service.

Smith said the conference probably will end tonight.

"At least we hope to set up the machinery for taking care of differences so there can be no strike," he said.

Hope for Arbitration
An official of the union said it would agree to arbitration of any or all of the issues, if such a proposal is made.

A spokesman for Southwestern Bell said officials of the utility want to hear what the governors may propose before they commit themselves on the subject of arbitration.

The six states represented at the conference are those served by Southwestern Bell—Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Illinois.

The meeting was arranged by Gov. Smith last Friday after the union, which had threatened to call the workers off their jobs before Christmas, agreed to postpone any strike until Jan. 1.

Today's conference of governors is similar to one which led to a settlement in the Missouri Pacific strike this year. That meeting was called by Gov. Smith at the suggestion of Gov. Sid McMath of Arkansas.

Baby Dies in Fire in Car
SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Dec. 29.—(P)—A baby girl died early today and her two-year-old brother was reported in fair condition after fire burned the interior of a car belonging to the children's parents.

Carolyn Stoker, one-year-old, died shortly after midnight. Second and third degree burns covered thirty percent of her body, Burge hospital officials said.

The child and Danny, her brother, are children of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stoker. They were riding with their father late yesterday afternoon. The father parked the car at a filling station here and the fire was discovered shortly after he had gone to a nearby cafe.

Cause of the fire is unknown, but Deputy Sheriff George Spencer said he found matches on the car floor.

Edson's Poll of Editors Shows Eisenhower Favored in 1952

By Peter Edson
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Harry S. Truman should not run for another term in the White House and Dwight S. Eisenhower should be the Republican candidate for president in 1952.

These are two outstanding opinions expressed in a poll of U. S. newspaper editors. The poll was conducted by NEA Service, Inc., to determine editors' political predictions for the New Year and beyond.

Twenty-one questions on domestic and foreign policy issues which will be discussed in the coming session of Congress were sent to the 723 U. S. editors who receive this column. Three hundred and forty-five—over 47 per cent—sent back their answers. Professional pollsters say this is a good return for a survey of this kind. Replies were received from every state in the Union. And they were so distributed that they give a balanced cross-section of opinion from every region. Arbitrarily dividing the country into six geographical areas, the replies are accounted for in this manner:

12 states, New England and Mid-Atlantic Coast area	49 papers
10 states, South—east of Mississippi River	58 papers
5 states, Midwest—east of Mississippi River	73 papers
8 states, Midwest—west of Mississippi River	59 papers
5 states, South—west of Mississippi River	57 papers
8 states, West—Pacific Coast and Rocky Mountains	40 papers

The returns were surprisingly even on most questions from area to area. Editors were 71 per cent opposed to another term for President Truman in both the Northeast and the South, 56 per cent against him throughout the Midwest, 62 per cent opposed in the West.

Against Truman Policies

Newspaper editorial opinion has of course been heavily anti-Democratic ever since Roosevelt's second term. The carry-over opposition to Mr. Truman today may be regarded by Democratic political leaders as sour grapes over his surprise victory in 1948 elections. But a close study of returns from this newspaper poll shows the editors are opposed to Truman's policies—not to the man himself. Most of the editors said honestly that they thought Mr. Truman would seek another term in the White House, even though they wished he wouldn't.

As to who the Democratic candidate should be in 1952, if not Mr. Truman, the editors were sharply divided. Fifty-three per cent would make no prediction whatever, saying it was too early.

Fourteen per cent opposed James F. Byrnes of South Carolina. Only a fifth of the Southern editors were for Byrnes, however, and he got as many votes in North and Midwest as in the South.

Next to Byrnes was Sen. Harry Byrd of Virginia, with 8 per cent of the editors' votes. Byrd showed more strength in the South than Byrnes, but got less support in other parts of the country.

Third was Sen. Paul H. Douglas of Illinois, with three per cent of the votes. While this showing is small and concentrated in the Midwest, his is the only new name on the list.

Senator Douglas nosed out Defense Secretary Louis Johnson, Sen. Clinton Anderson of New Mexico and Justice William O. Douglas. Other votes were scattered among 17 names.

59 Per Cent Felt Eisenhower Should Be Republican

One question asked the editors was, "Should General Eisenhower run as a Republican or Democrat?" Fifty-nine per cent said he should run as a Republican, 4 per cent as a Democrat, 11 per cent as either Republican or Democrat. But 26 per cent of the editors thought it would be best if General Eisenhower did not run at all. When it came to the question of, "Who is the best man the Republicans could run against Truman?" 44 per cent of the editors answered, "Eisenhower," 28 per cent said "Taft," 13 per cent said "Stassen," 2 per cent said "Warren." Seven per cent were undecided.

The rest of the vote was scattered among 11 other names: Marshall Plan Administrator Paul Hoffman, Governors Dewey of New York, Driscoll of New Jersey and Youngdahl of Minnesota; Senators Vandenberg, Saltonstall, Bricker and Ives; General MacArthur.

Byrd and Byrnes, though Democrats, got one Republican vote apiece.

Won't Play in Their Back Yard

The Americans for Democratic Action are saying some unkind things these days about their former hero. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower. They don't like him politically any more because he has been outspoken against the "welfare state."

We detect more than a hint of intolerance in their attitude. The impression conveyed by their criticisms is that Eisenhower, by aligning himself against that political philosophy, has automatically fallen into league with the nation's worst reactionaries.

We get the feeling the ADA thinks Ike ought to stop making speeches if he can't speak for himself. It hardly needs to be said that he has as much right to voice his views as anyone in ADA. When this is no longer true, we can take the word "Democratic" out of ADA's title.

U. S. Ambassador to Turkey Will Probably Not Stay Long

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON.—One American ambassador not likely to stay long at his present post is delightful. garrulous George Wadsworth, U.S. envoy to Turkey.

Wadsworth follows a schedule that runs his staff ragged. He plays bridge until after 3 a.m., gets down to his office about noon, goes out for golf right after lunch, sees callers at 6 p.m.

If an American businessman wants to see the Ambassador, he is usually invited in at six, but finds so many other callers grouped around the martini tray that he can't discuss anything private.

What drives Wadsworth's staff really wild is his belief in strict protocol. He demands, for instance, that no one of lesser rank leave a dinner party until the top ranking guest has departed. And since the Ambassador usually outranks everyone else, other guests have to twiddle their fingers until 3 a.m., until he gets up from the bridge table.

Once when a young matron, not in good health, tried to leave a party at midnight, Wadsworth put her in her place with: "Where are you going darling?"

NOTE—A great admirer of the Arabs, Wadsworth's denunciation of the Jews is so vigorous it is embarrassing. When Arab dignitaries pass through Istanbul, he is a frequent visitor at the airport to greet them.

National Water Survey

The U.S. Public Health Service will soon make a sweeping survey to determine the effects of water shortage and water pollution on the nation's health.

Federal health officials privately report that the lack of facilities to decontaminate river water—which most Americans drink—is shocking. A sudden breakdown of these subgrade facilities, they say, could lead to serious water shortages in other cities besides New York.

More than 10,000 new water-cleaning units are needed throughout the nation to decontaminate drinking water taken from rivers and bring it up to proper health and taste standards.

Communist Captives

Though the heat was taken off the Chinese Communists after Angus Ward's release, the State Department is still trying to free two other Americans from Communist hands. They are Marine M/Sgt. Elmer Bender of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Navy Chief Electrician William Smith of Long Beach, Calif.

These men have already endured one icy winter in an underheated Chinese jail, but the public clamor in their behalf hasn't been loud enough to arouse the State Department.

Believing, however, that two enlisted men are entitled to the same protection as one of the State Department's own employees, this column has investigated the case of Bender and Smith. They disappeared on a routine training flight near Tsingtao, China, on October 19, 1948—one year and two months ago. Word reached the Navy over the Chinese grapevine on November 4 that they had landed in Communist territory, were alive and in good health. This was confirmed by additional reports on January 17 and March 22, 1949.

A Communist agent, representing the pair's captors, got in touch with the Navy later and offered to negotiate their freedom. He reported that Bender and Smith had been moved from Hsia Tien to Nan Tsun, China about February 15. The Navy delivered a written document, asking for their release, received an answer that the Navy be put in touch with the "highest authorities." However, no further word came through, so the Navy turned the matter over to the State Department. That began the series of notes to Chinese Communist officials.

Finally Mrs. Smith on July 23, 1949, appealed to Congress.

"As the Navy has evacuated China, my husband has been left behind without supplies and medicine," Mrs. Smith pleaded "I have never been able to correspond or send him supplies. I have two small children, one his father has never seen. My children need their father as I need him."

Can't Even Write Families

On August 4, Ernest A. Gross, assistant secretary of state, informed Congress:

"Our diplomatic and consular officials in China are doing everything possible to secure information concerning the welfare of Mr. Smith and Mr. Bender and to secure their return. A message just received from the American consul general at Peiping states that he has attempted further approach to the authorities there."

One month later, Gross promised again: "The matter is again being brought to the attention of the highest Chinese Communist authorities at Peiping."

Another month passed. On October 18, Gross reported sadly: "The consul at Tsingtao on October 10, 1949, addressed an informal memorandum to the local Communist authorities stressing the humanitarian aspects of the two cases. This approach was without satisfactory response from the local authorities who were 'instructed' to inform the consul that they no longer knew the whereabouts of Mr. Smith and Mr. Bender."

Latest word from the State Department said: "On November 25, 1949 our consul general at Peiping sent a letter to Chou En-Lai who is in charge of the foreign relations of the recently established Chinese Communist regime requesting that he cause an early investigation of the matter to be made to the end that the men be permitted to communicate with their families regarding their personal welfare."

NOTE—What the State Department is up against, of course, is the impossibility of sending armed force into China to rescue two men. However, it would seem that it should not have required a year to ask the Communist foreign minister that the men have the privilege of writing their families.

The National Committee for Mental Hygiene announces that it is "impossible for married people to love one another 100 per cent all of the time."

If that is news it is only to the unmarried.

Any married couple could make a quick list of times when 100 per cent love is impossible.

As, for instance—

When He is making himself conspicuous by paying too much attention to a pretty girl at a party.

When She interrupts the story he is telling to say, "No, John, it wasn't on Tuesday, it was on Thursday. I remember distinctly because that is the day my cleaning woman comes."

When He is an hour late on a night when she has cooked a good dinner that isn't being improved by being warmed over.

When She gets a laugh from the crowd by telling a story that makes him look silly.

They're Still At It

When He obliges her by guessing what her new hat cost—and guesses far below the actual figure.

When She is reminding him that he really shouldn't have another drink, or that he ought to let her drive home.

When He wonders why she can't run the house as efficiently as his secretary runs his office.

When She gets the checkbook all snarled up.

When He forgets their wedding anniversary.

When She does such a thorough job of housecleaning he can't find anything he wants for days.

When He stretches out on the davenport after dinner while she washes the dishes and gets the children to bed.

It's times like these when love is something less than 100 per cent.

The Doctor Says— Use Artificial Respiration to Aid Carbon Monoxide Victims

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

The danger from carbon monoxide poisoning is always greater in winter than in summer. Because of the cold weather houses and garages are likely to be shut up tight and fresh air does not circulate as it does in the summer. This means that a furnace, heater, or running motor of an automobile in a closed carriage will produce carbon monoxide which may not be promptly diluted with good fresh air.

The exhaust of a car, for example, pushes carbon monoxide into the air. This is an odorless gas. When breathed in, this gas combines with a portion of the blood known as hemoglobin which normally carries oxygen to the tissues. If carbon monoxide replaces oxygen in the hemoglobin, the tissues are starved for life-giving oxygen. It quickly causes unconsciousness and death soon after.

Watch for Symptoms
When only small amounts of carbon monoxide are present warning symptoms may be present. These are usually headache, dizziness, desire to vomit, muscular weakness, and a generally uncomfortable feeling. It is only when large amounts of carbon monoxide are present that the victim becomes drowsy and unconscious so fast that these other symptoms may be passed by.

A person who has been exposed to carbon monoxide should be removed from the bad air at once. Artificial respiration and giving oxygen as soon as possible are desirable. Fire department crews, police and gas company employees are usually trained to give rapid emergency treatment for this form of poisoning.

If there is such a thing as chronic poisoning from carbon monoxide, one would expect it to be found in people who are exposed to small amounts of carbon monoxide for long periods of time, such as those working in certain mining operations, about furnaces, or in garages.

QUESTION: What will stop or remedy a bad circulation in the left arm or hand which has been present for several months?

ANSWER: I cannot tell without knowing the cause of the poor circulation. This should be investigated before any treatment like massage or special exercises should be tried.

Three-Legged Races Are Fun, if You Keep in Step

I Love My Doctor

By Evelyn Barkins

THE STORY: John and I eloped before John finished his term as intern at the hospital. Now John has opened his office and as a receptionist, I'm helping him build a practice. John is learning many things about being a doctor which are not in medical textbooks.

XVI

POOR John. Some patients wanted long examinations, some short, and all he wanted was to please.

"Making a diagnosis is a cinch," he used to say, "compared with the horrible business of satisfying a patient."

In despair, he approached a Dr. Hollis, an older colleague, and asked for advice. "Don't ever try to impress a patient, John," said Dr. Hollis. "I used to try; but when I took a needlessly long time over an examination, even looking at the toenails and the hair, half said: 'Dumb guy, that doctor, couldn't seem to find out what was the matter with me,' and the other half said: 'Good doctor! Gives a thorough examination,' not realizing that three-fourths of it was a waste of time."

"Then when I did my examinations more quickly but adequately, again some said: 'I don't like that doctor. He isn't careful. He just rushes you out,' while others said: 'Smart doctor, knew at a glance just what was wrong.' The moral obviously is: You can please some of the people all of the time, you can please all of the people some of the time, but you can't please all of the people all of the time. So," finished Dr. Hollis, "I now work to please myself, and satisfy my medical conscience only. And if Mrs. G. doesn't like my speed, or my necktie, so what?" and he shrugged.

But even with this advice, which we wholeheartedly accepted, there was still the problem of how much to talk to patients. This was twofold: General talk during a treatment, and medical talk during a professional explanation.

THE first was rapidly solved. After losing a Democrat patient because John didn't seem to appreciate Roosevelt enough, and then sacrificing a Republican because John seemed to appreciate Roosevelt too much, we both bowed down before the sacred cows of civilization: politics, religion, and motherhood. Nowhere was democracy practiced as orthodoxly as in our office.

I concentrated on being professional. This means that when Mrs. Dixon coyly conceded some eight more years to her age than she had on a previous visit with her spouse, I scarcely blinked.

It is strange perhaps, as a physician's wife, to have to admit that my pet peeve is physicians in general. Early in our courtship and subsequent practice, I had discovered that some—fortunately not too many—doctors are narrow, egotistical, professionally arrogant, and stubbornly prejudiced in their own favor. When they speak, it is obvious that from their point of view, the Great Jehovah speaks too. Their commands to their patients often have all the earmarks of a royal edict, and their rage when their competency is questioned by patients in cases where in all honesty they should question themselves, is vaguely reminiscent of a schizophrenic in his Napoleonic stage. Instead of realizing and accepting the limitations of modern medicine, they conjure up a false picture of being all-knowing, all-seeing, all-wise.

Of course, I can well understand how these few get that way. The man who rules in life and death cases almost by the divine right of kings, as a doctor does, must often become imperceptibly overwhelmed with the importance of his subject matter. The tendency toward autocracy is inherent in all human nature. Gradually, he forgets that his is but another trade mastered like plumbers or electricians learn theirs; and eventually he attributes to himself the significance that belongs only to his work. And then he walks through modern civilization like an uncrowned dictator.

"When I think of the people who don't smoke, eat or sleep when they please, because some doctor's got hold of them," I once told John, "I could scream. When I think of how children were once forced to swallow spinach no matter what, because you medics said it was good. And now, you say it is bad and causes sand to form in the kidneys."

"When I think of the innumerable diet fads some doctors start without a shred of substantial, scientific, final proof, but just to sound important! The times the whole country almost ulcerated its insides with bran and other rough foods; the way they're taking vitamins now in wholesale doses for anything from athlete's feet up."

"Why, John," I finished indignantly, "if any politician ever tried to run other people's lives the way any ordinary doctor does, we'd call it unconstitutional and hang him. But if the holier-than-holy medic says 'Stick your head in ice water three times a day,' because he has nothing else to suggest for dandruff, we rush to obey. It's incredible!"

JOHN sat up straight. "Say, wait a minute," he said, jokingly. "I just want to make sure nobody's listening." Then he asked, seriously, "You don't mean me, do you?"

"Nope," I answered, hugging him to show it. "There are some nice ones occasionally, just to prove the rule. But if you ever forget that you're just another one of those famous 'little people,' I'll . . . and I waved my fist at him in a mock menacing gesture.

As practice progressed, however, and it did almost without our being aware of it, it was natural for John's self-confidence and assurance to grow also. At first, I discounted many of his statements as professional enthusiasm, but then I began to worry.

Opportunity Is Important

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 29.—(P)—Security should result from opportunity rather than promises mid-western Grange leaders were told today.

The speaker was Wib Just, youth director for the national Grange organization, who spoke at the opening of a two-day conference of Grange officials from 10 states.

"We feel there is a dangerous philosophy being created among some young people," Just said. "That philosophy is the one in which a young person is taught to want a certain amount of money or security for every service he performs or every job he does."

He said the Grange youth program was more interested in gaining opportunity for young people rather than gaining security itself.

"We feel that security automatically will follow opportunity," he concluded.

Represented at the conference were Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Minnesota, Ohio, Illinois, Nebraska and Indiana.

Super Chief Hit Gasoline Truck

AZUSA, Calif., Dec. 29.—(P)—The Santa Fe's Super Chief hit a gasoline truck here today, and the truck blew up.

The truck driver was cremated in his cab; two trainmen were burned, a house and a garage were slightly burned. But no passengers were injured, and damage to the train was not great.

The truck driver was Askel W. Olson, 44, of Inglewood. The trainman, hospitalized with second degree burns, are Engineer Clement J. Hennessey, 61, and Frank L. Hannah, 39, both of San Bernardino.

Railroad officials said the train, west bound to Los Angeles from Chicago, was moving at about 35 miles an hour. Olson was delivering 7,000 gallons of gasoline to a depot at the crossing when the crash occurred.

The train was set afire the length of its two Diesel locomotives and two mail cars. Firemen poured on chemicals and saved the mail.

Early Training Was Useful

DETROIT, Dec. 29.—(P)—Miss Lorraine Rickey, 23, was about to get into her car in front of her home here last night.

Along came a young man. "Going downtown, baby?" he asked.

When she gave him an emphatic "No," he grabbed her by the throat.

Seconds later the thug was flat on his back on the sidewalk. With an anguished groan, he picked himself up and fled into the darkness.

Miss Rickey, five-foot-five and weighing 120 pounds, phoned police a brief report before climbing into her car.

Police were intrigued. She had estimated the thug's weight at 170 pounds. They learned on further inquiry:

Miss Rickey's brother, Edward, had trained her in judo. He was a judo instructor with an airborne division during the war.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(P)—President Truman will deliver his state-of-the-union message before a joint session of the Senate and House next Wednesday.

The White House announced today that this time was decided on in talks the President had with the "Big Four" congressional leaders by telephone.

He talked with Vice President Barkley in Washington; Senate Democratic leader Lucas in Illinois; Speaker Rayburn in Texas and House Democratic leader McCormack in Boston.

Presidential press secretary Charles G. Ross said the exact time of the President's talk has not been fixed, but that it will be around 12:30 p. m. (EST). (11:30 a. m. CST.)

Report New Star Hotter Than Sun

TUCSON, Ariz., Dec. 29.—(P)—A star 27 times hotter than the sun was reported today.

Dr. Thornton Page of Yerkes Observatory, Chicago, said the star, which is centered in a ring nebula, has a surface temperature of 270,000 degrees Fahrenheit.

His disclosure was made in a paper at the 82nd annual convention of the American Astronomical Society.

Dr. Page pointed out there are thousands of stars hotter than the sun which has a surface temperature of only 10,000 degrees Fahrenheit.

She is survived by two step children Otto and Ester Hesse. Mrs. Hesse was a member of Holy Cross church where services will be held for her by Rev. A. J. Schaur.

Burial will be in the Holy Cross cemetery.

Crawled Home More Than Mile

CRAB ORCHARD, Tenn., Dec. 29.—(P)—The body of a pilot who crawled more than a mile after suffering a broken leg in a plane crash seven days ago was found today on rugged Devil Step mountain.

Deputy Sheriff Beecher Poteet said John Anderson, 35, of Houston, Tex., had crawled to within a mile of a country road. He had been dead for several days when the body was found.

Death apparently was caused by shock and exposure. Considerable rain and below-freezing temperatures have been recorded on the mountain since the plane crashed on the night of Dec. 22.

Anderson had taken off from Columbus, Miss., for a holiday visit to his former home at Bristol, Tenn.-Va. The wreckage of his private 4-passenger plane was found yesterday.

A ground party which toiled up the heavily wooded mountain to the crash scene yesterday passed within 20 feet of the spot where the body was found.

Negro Blues Singer Dead

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29.—(P)—Ivy Anderson, 45-year-old Negro blues singer whose records made with Duke Ellington's band are collector's items, died yesterday. She had been ill for almost three weeks with an asthmatic condition.

A native of Gilroy, Calif., she was discovered in 1922 in San Francisco by Fanchon and Marco, vaudeville producers. Her greatest fame came after she joined Duke Ellington in 1929. She sang with the Duke for 13 years in Harlem's Cotton Club.

Among her most stormy records are one of "Stormy Weather," considered a Blues classic, and "I Got It Bad, and That Ain't Good."

Four Seminarians Drown

HEMLOCK, N. Y., Dec. 29.—(P)—Four seminarians of St. Michael's Catholic mission were reported drowned today after a sudden wind upset a rowboat on Hemlock lake.

Still missing and the object of dragging operations by sheriff's deputies of five counties were: John Griffin, New Jersey; George Leo Burns, Auburn, N. Y., and Lawrence Malloy, Toronto, Ont.

Two other occupants of the boat reached shore but one of them died despite nearly four hours of efforts to revive him. He was Paul Whittaker, 19, of Massachusetts.

Chicago Orchestra To Have New Leader

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—(P)—The Chicago Symphony Orchestra will have a new, permanent conductor and musical director next fall—Rafael Kubelik, 35-year-old Czech musician.

Kubelik, conductor of the Czech Philharmonic Orchestra in Prague from 1942 to 1948, is the son of the late Jan Kubelik, noted concert violinist.

Kubelik yesterday was engaged by the orchestral association for a two-year term. Edward L. Rycerson, association president, said he will have full responsibility for the orchestra's musical policies, programs and soloists. Kubelik's salary was not announced.

Grocer Is Slain

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 29.—(P)—Iley E. Johnson, a grocer, was slain today by the single thrust of a 10-inch butcher knife.

Frank Boyce, 31, a butcher employed at the store, was taken to police headquarters. His face covered with blood.

Later Sam Modica, a representative of the county prosecutor's office said Boyce admitted the stabbing, saying it followed a quarrel over domestic matters.

Staggering Holiday Toll

By the Associated Press

The nation celebrated the six major holidays in 1949 with a lot of whoopla and gaiety, but there was a staggering toll of violent accidental deaths—2,717.

And, the National Safety Council predicts, 1950 will start with 330 Americans being killed in traffic accidents over the New Year's week-end. It did not estimate the number of deaths in other accidents.

Deaths on the highways, in the air, fires, drownings, and a variety of other causes reached new records over some of the holiday periods this year. In most of them, the traffic toll exceeded the figure estimated by the council.

The 1949 holiday violent deaths showed: 1,705 in traffic mishaps; 391 drowned; 66 killed in fires and 555 killed in accidents of miscellaneous causes—including falls, airplane crashes, shootings, asphyxiations, etc.

Accused of Child Neglect

By Howard W. Blakeslee Associated Press Science Editor NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—(P)—Top American scientists today charged the federal government accused of neglecting child research while spending millions on bombs.

Dr. Leona Baumgartner, of the Children's Bureau, Washington, D. C., made the statement before the American Association for the advancement of science.

Only a few thousand dollars a year of federal money now goes for child health research, she said, but more than half a billion is spent on other research, including immense sums on bombs and atomic energy.

By contrast, she said, children are by far the most important product of the United States.

To be Taxed For Highways

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—(P)—American taxpayers are expected to put up a record $2 billion next year for roads and highways. To day they have the cheering word they might save $200 million on the deal.

That is because road construction costs are down about 10 per cent from their 1948 peak, and may even drop another five per cent, while highway labor productivity is reported up.

Mrs. Human Moving Her Art Shop

Mrs. Lula R. Human, owner of Mrs. Human's Art Shop, which for the past several years has been located at 207 South Ohio avenue, is moving her shop to 710 South Ohio avenue, which has been the location of the Stevens Wallpaper and Paint company for many years. Mrs. A. R. Stevens, who owned and operated the store has retired.

The Art Shop will move to its new location Friday and will be open for business Saturday.

Gift to Nursery by Chasnoff Family

The family of the late Mrs. M. Chasnoff of Kansas City has presented to the Melita Day Nursery of Sedalia in her memory, a circulating gas heater for the large play room added to the nursery building.

During her life time, Mrs. Chasnoff was a loyal friend of the nursery and every year since her son Joseph lost his life in the fire that destroyed the Missouri Athletic Club building in St. Louis many years ago, she gave a party for the nursery children in memory of his birthday.

other candidates combined," Reagan declared.

The 49-year-old lawyer said he has assurance of "people in Washington" that President Truman will not endorse a candidate in the primary.

That was his answer to reports in Jefferson City that state Senator Emery W. Allison of Rolla has the support—behind the scenes, at least—of the President and state party leaders.

Allison, acknowledged boss of the Missouri Senate, indicated yesterday he was seriously considering making the race. He promised to come up with a decision by Saturday morning.

Both Smith and Hendren have denied that they have stamped approval on any candidate. They have said the primary would be a free and open affair.

Ham And Egg Situation Is of Concern

dried eggs which could be stored.

Removal of these lower grade eggs from the retail market tended to keep the prices of better eggs high. But the Agriculture Department is trying to figure out what to do with the nearly 900,000,000 worth of the dried eggs it now has on hand.

Methods for supporting egg prices during the next year have not yet been announced by the department, and the farm price declines have caused demands on Congress for a temporary price-support program.

There has been much congressional criticism of the dried egg program by Chairman Elmer Thomas (D-Okl.) of the Senate Agriculture committee and others.

Numerous lawmakers also are protesting the wide price spreads between farmers and consumers.

The egg price complaints are expected to get early attention from a Senate Agriculture subcommittee headed by Gillette. It is investigating farm price spreads and profits.

Car Overtakes, No One Injured

Mrs. Joseph W. Reid, 410 Dal-Whi-Mo court, her sister, Mrs. Lucille Corderman, and Miss Mary Lu Reid, her daughter, escaped injury about 10 o'clock Wednesday morning when the car in which they were riding overtook and turned on Highway 50 at Larn Avenue, in Kansas City. Miss Reid was driving the car at the time.

Miss Reid, a school teacher in St. Louis, reported they were approaching Larn Avenue when the car hit an icy stretch and she lost control of the machine. The car slid 100 feet north off the highway through a field and turned over.

Damage to the automobile was estimated at $250.

Matt Mullaleys Have Their Dog Back

The Cocker Spaniel of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Mullaley, 801 East Twelfth street, which strayed from home last Saturday morning is home now.

Dolly, the dog's name, was found wandering around in the vicinity of Sixteenth street and Marshall avenue, Christmas day. Some kind people in that vicinity took the dog in out of the cold weather, fed it, and notified the Mullaleys after seeing the article in the newspaper pertaining to the lost pet.

More Water But Consumption Jumps

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—(P)—York City's reservoir levels rose again today, but the consumption of water jumped, too, in the face of appeals for continued saving.

The runoff from recent rains added 1,194,000,000 gallons to the storage lakes in 24 hours. The use of water rose about 50,000,000 gallons.

Calls for Cut in Spending

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(P)—Senator Connally (D-Texas) called today for cuts in foreign spending next year and continuation of a "non-partisan" foreign policy.

The veteran chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee told a news conference that U.S. recovery and military assistance programs "have already installed new confidence in a jittery world."

"The United States can have but one foreign policy," he insisted.

Cardinal Probably Taken to Russia

ROME, Dec. 29—(AP)—The Roman information agency said on Wednesday Josef Cardinal Mindzenty has been removed from a Budapest prison and probably taken to Russia.

Ari, an unofficial agency which specializes in Catholic news, said the Cardinal, who was sentenced to life imprisonment last Feb. 8, was removed under heavy guard. It said the information was received from personnel at the prison hospital to which the Cardinal was taken for periodic health checks. The agency said it was not likely that the Cardinal was taken to another Hungarian prison and that he, therefore, was probably taken to Russia.

Find Body Of A Missing Physician

RIVERSIDE, Calif., Dec. 29—(AP)—The body of Dr. Earl G. Bramble, 33, Corona Del Mar, Calif., physician missing nine days, was found Wednesday in wreckage of his crashed airplane. An air rescue search team from March Air Force base, hiking into the rugged San Bernardino mountains, found the wreckage and the physician's body wedged in it at a point some eight miles north of Banning, Calif. Dr. Bramble, a Kansas City, Mo., native, is survived by a widow and two children. He disappeared Dec. 19 after taking off in his new Beechcraft Bonanza plane from Barstow, Calif., on a short flight to Santa Ana, Calif., not far from his home.

Dog Saves Family, But Died Itself

EAST OXFORD, Me., Dec. 29—(AP)—A little dog saved a family of 11 from fire Wednesday but perished in the flames. Fred Bartlett, father of nine children, said Blacky, a puppy hound, scratched and barked on the farmhouse kitchen door until Bartlett investigated. He discovered the adjoining barn ablaze.

Bartlett awakened his wife who led the children to safety. The flames swept through the barn to the house, destroying both with a loss estimated at $6,000. In the excitement, six-months old Blacky ran back into the flaming house and perished. More than 300 Army officers were retired for physical disability by the U. S. War Department in 1933. Mackenzie's Column

By DeWitt MacKenzie
AP Foreign News Analyst

Two years ago Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, in proclaiming a new partnership between the kingdom of the Netherlands and the Dutch East and West Indies, declared that "colonialism is dead."

It took courage to face the writing on the wall and truly interpret its significance. Colonialism or imperialism, or whatever name you wish to call it, is indeed on its way out.

Yesterday the United States of Indonesia, comprising the rich islands of the Dutch East Indies, came into full being as a sovereign nation. This was the accuracy of her majesty's pronouncement demonstrated in the major and by far the richest portion of her empire.

There still remains that part of the empire comprising the Dutch West Indies (the Antilles) and Dutch Guiana (Surinam) on the Atlantic coast of South America. But even in the case of this vestige of the empire the mother country is planning a conference for the coming April to consider the granting of greater autonomy. So this bloc in the western hemisphere may be forced into another federal nation, similar to the Indonesian group, with sovereign rights. Holland will hope that, as in the case of Indonesia, the new group will remain within the Dutch commonwealth.

And what does such termination of "colonialism" do to the mother country economically? Well, that remains to be seen. In the case of the United States of Indonesia, all private investments are guaranteed for all types of property, and for all time. That is to say, Dutch investors can continue as heretofore, actually no Dutchman has been permitted to own property outright in Indonesia. Foreigners of all nations theoretically have equal rights for purposes of investment.

Wealth in Dutch Guiana

So far as concerns the West Indies, the main wealth lies in Dutch Guiana. The chief products are bananas, cacao, sugar, coffee, rice, maize, rum, cotton, bauxite, gold and balata.

However, the country is largely undeveloped and its potentialities are unknown. As pointed out in yesterday's column, in the inhospitable hinterland there are gold, diamonds and precious woods, but the area never has been fully prospected because death or permanent disability lurk everywhere for the white man.

The jungle hinterlands of Dutch, French and British Guiana are veritable hell-holes. Horror lurks at every step in the form of poisonous snakes, scorpions, centipedes, and all sorts of insects. Then there are vampire bats which attack while you are asleep, and huge anacondas which can crush a man or animal in its coils and swallow its victim whole.

A World Record Speaking of anacondas, while I was in Paramaribo, capital of Dutch Guiana, a Dutchman who sent native expeditions into the jungle after precious woods told me one of his men had reported finding a record size anaconda. The native estimated the size of this monster at 45 feet—a world record if true. The Dutchman said he was going to organize an expedition and try to capture this reptile for sale to some zoo. I never heard the outcome.

But to return to our muttons, Surinam may prove to be a source of vast wealth on development. Whether the mother country will profit by that depends on the structure of the projected United Nations of the West Indies and Surinam. The Dutch settlers in Surinam want their independence and it isn't at this juncture when ther they will be willing to combine with other colonial units. I many event, whoever participates in opening up the Surinam jungle country may share in great wealth.

Each of the continents has one or more towns bearing the name of Rome.

Boyle's Column

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK—(AP)—Albert Einstein is a man who plumbs the secrets of the atom and the universe—and yet can't understand an income tax blank.

It is a measure of the humility of the greatest living mathematician that he cheerfully admitted in 1944 he had to call in a tax expert to help him figure how much he owes Uncle Sam.

But money always has been a matter of comparative indifference to this "scientist's scientist." He once used a $1,500 check from the Rockefeller foundation as a bookmark—and lost the book. He gave his 1921 Nobel prize award money to charity.

Crowns Fine Life

Now at 70, Einstein, regarded by many as the finest mind of our time, has crowned a noble life with a new theory of gravitation.

Its implications will be lost to the average man whose knowledge of gravity can be summed up in the phrase "all that goes up must come down." But science, in time, will have to choose between the theory of Einstein and those of Newton.

The theory of relativity, postulated by Einstein in 1905 at the age of 26, first shocked the scientific world. That controversy seemed a lot of hullabaloo to the average man then. It seemed to touch him not at all. But the atom bomb is a by-product of that theory—and today it touches the life of everyone.

A Mental Architect

The truth is that this gentle, dreamy looking little man is one of the great revolutionaries of history. He is the mental architect of a new world now in its birth pangs.

Some men have changed history with vast armies. Einstein does it with a fountain pen scribbling strange mathematical formulas on a pad of paper held on his knee. And the scientists go into their laboratories and use those formulas to open up fresh vistas of atomic power.

Life a Paradox

Einstein's life has been a paradox. As a child he was regarded as backward. He is by nature a pacifist, yet his discoveries led to the most terrible weapon yet devised—the atom bomb.

"War seems to me a mean, contemptible thing," he once said. "I would rather be hacked to pieces than take part in such an abominable business."

He has been a devoted and eloquent fighter for freedom of inquiry and the dignity of man.

"Let every man be respected as an individual and no man idolized," he said in modest objection to the adulation accorded him. "It is an irony of fate that I myself have been the recipient of excessive admiration and respect from my fellows through no fault of my own."

Refused Ride in Rickshaw

During a stopover in China on a world tour he refused to ride in a rickshaw, saying:

"It will not be a part to the making of a man a draft animal."

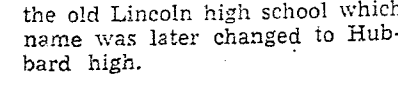

Einstein takes in good temper the jokes on his absent-mindedness—he sometimes has to be reminded to put on shoes when he leaves his study—and his fondness for wearing old clothes.

When his wife on one occasion objected to his baggy look, he quoted her Spinoza:

"It would be a sad situation if the bag was better than the meat wrapped in it."

Seventh Annual Hereford Show

The Fairfax brothers, E. H. Gregory and Sons, Dick G. Monsees and E. J. Sims and Son of Pettis county have consigned a total of eight bulls and four females to the Missouri State Hereford Sale to be held in Sedalia February 13. This is the seventh annual show and sale and is expected to draw buyers from a widespread area because only top cattle are fitted for this sale. Missouri holds a high rank among other states as to numbers of Hereford cattle. A good bull used on either commercial or purebred herds of cattle will soon pay for himself through the increased value of his calves, says A. J. Dyer, Columbia, secretary of the state organization, and a poor bull becomes more costly the longer he is used.

Traffic Cases

Frank E. Dowdy, 2604 East Broadway, arrested by State Trooper Wayne Allman for careless driving, pleaded guilty in police court this morning and was fined $25 by Judge Harry O. Berry. Dowdy was arrested as he was en route to his home.

Henry Kirby, Pilot Grove, arrested by the police for careless driving, failed to appear in police court and his cash bond of $10 was ordered forfeited.

Seven overtime parkers failed to appear in court and their cash bonds of one dollar each were ordered forfeited.

Lutheran Minister Dies

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 29—(AP)—Dr. Victor Spong, president of the Kansas Conference of Augustana Lutheran church, died yesterday. He was 68 years old.

Dr. Spong was born in Sweden. He attended Bethany college, Lindsborg, Kas., and became one of the leading members of his church.

A conference president is equivalent to bishop in other churches. The conference includes Kansas, Missouri and Colorado. In addition, he was pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran church, which he took over in 1913 when it had 100 members. Today the church has 900.

Dr. Spong also was chairman of the board of directors of Bethany college and chairman of the board of trustees of Trinity Lutheran hospital. He died in the hospital after an illness of a month.

Survivors include his wife, and two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Sarli and Miss Grace Spong.

Conducting Youth Revival

Rev. Earl Swafford

Martin B. Bradley

The Youth revival, which began last Sunday at the Calvary Baptist church is being well attended. Three of the church's own young men are leading the revival, which is sponsored by the Y. S. C., a youth organization of the church.

Rev. Earl Swafford, a student at Southwest Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas, is preaching each night. John Towner, a music student in Kansas university, is leading the song services and directing a youth choir and Martin B. Bradley, president of the Baptist Student Union and a student at Missouri university, is directing conferences on problems of youth each night at 7 o'clock.

A watch night program will follow the services on Saturday night and the meetings will close on Sunday night, January 1.

The American Legion auxiliary met at the Legion hall Thursday night. Mrs. Walter Stevens, the president conducted the business meeting. Various games were played in charge of Miss Frances Beatty. There was a Christmas tree and gifts were exchanged. Mrs. Ralph Bruce served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph "Jim" Berry of Belton spent the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Berry.

Misses Mary V. Hogan, Rena Lay, Dorothy Wasson and Mary Mahlin attended the "Messiah" in Hendrick's hall at Central Missouri State college in Warrensburg Sunday afternoon.

Miss Barbara Lay, a student at Missouri Valley college in Marshall is spending her Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Lay.

Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd, son, Jimmie of Kansas City, spent Saturday night and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Boyd.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

With the coming of the year 1950, Missouri Public Service wishes for everyone a Happy New Year and the best of everything in the coming twelve months for all those who read this message.

The coming of this new year may see changes in our way of life before the curtain is rung down on December 31.

We have faith, however, in the sound judgment of the American people to take a course that will retain the liberties which we have—in far greater measure than any other country—and to continue to lead the world in freedom, tolerance and prosperity.

Author Hervey Allen Died Unexpectedly

'Anthony Adverse' Among Several of His 'Best Sellers'

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 29—(P)—Hervey Allen, 60, author of the best seller "Anthony Adverse" and many other books, died unexpectedly at his home of a heart attack Wednesday.

Allen's wife, Mrs. Ann Andrews Allen, found the noted author's body on the bathroom floor about noon.

Suffers Heart Attack Dr. Franz Stewart, local heart specialist, said he was summoned to the Allen home but efforts to revive Allen failed. It was believed he had suffered a heart attack while preparing to shave.

At the time of his death he was working on a sequel to his book, "Toward the Morning," one of a series he was writing on pre-revolutionary times in the United States.

Although Allen was one of the most prolific writers of his time, his fame with the reading public rested largely with the 1000-page "Anthony Adverse" which he started writing in Bermuda in 1932 and completed in 1933.

His literary career began in 1921 when "Wampum and Old Gold" was published followed by such well known works as "Israfel", a biography of Edgar Allan Poe, "Action of Aquila" and "The Forest and the Fort." He has edited the "Rivers of America" series since 1943.

Allen studied at Harvard, was an instructor of English at high schools in South Carolina, lectured on English and American literature at Columbia university and was a lecturer on modern poetry at Vassar college.

During 1944 he was a regional information representative on the War Manpower Commission.

No Decision on Loan WASHINGTON, Dec. 29—(P)—The World Bank said Wednesday it has "not made any decision" whether a loan can be made to Yugoslavia.

"The matter is still under discussion," a spokesman added. Dispatches from Belgrade said Yugoslav officials told their parliament yesterday that the bank has "agreed in principle" to lend Yugoslavia $25,000,000.

SHAMPOO SHIELD—Designed to make hair washing more fun for baby and less trouble for mother is this shampoo shade that keeps soap out of baby's eyes, ears and mouth. Made of clear plastic, the shade has an elastic band that stretches to fit all small heads. It is made by a New York manufacturer.

Pope Speaks To Diplomats

VATICAN CITY, Dec. 29—(P)—Pope Pius XII Wednesday hailed the Vatican state as a "citadel of peace" which stands firm in a troubled world.

Speaking to the diplomatic representatives of some 40 nations in response to their new year's greeting, the pontiff declared that in the world's efforts toward peace, the Vatican's potentiality is incalculable.

"Our hope," he said, "is to see this potentiality for peace yet increased until it reaches complete effectiveness for the good of all people."

The pope this year dispensed with the formality that previously marked his annual meeting with the diplomatic corps. He did not ascend his throne. Speaking in French he said:

"Holy year marked the starting point of a new orientation of hearts and spirits, a return of the strayed to an exact conception of the true foundations of peace, assured in the social domain and in international relations."

Accidentally Killed While Hunting SILOAM SPRINGS, Ark., Dec. 29—(P)—Fourteen-year-old Robert Bennett of Siloam Springs was accidentally shot to death Tuesday on a hunting trip. He was with two companions four miles west of here, in Delaware county, Oklahoma. Sheriff John Waterfallen said a .22 caliber rifle bullet hit the boy in the heart. He said the rifle held by a 12-year-old companion, discharged itself.

Rats Gnawed Fingers Off

ABILENE, Tex., Dec. 29—(P)—Rats gnawed all 8 fingers and thumb from the hands of a three-month-old Abilene child, it was reported here Wednesday.

The incident occurred last Saturday when Mrs. Rito Martinez left her daughter, Carmen Martinez, in her small apartment while she visited another apartment.

When she returned she found the little girl's hands were bleeding profusely and a small mongrel dog, the family's pet, was licking the wounds. Mrs. Martinez said she believes the dog frightened the rats away.

The father of the child later found two large rats in the house. The child was rushed to a hospital. Her condition later was reported good.

Selections by Film Critics

NEW YORK, Dec. 29—(P)—New York film critics have voted "All the King's Men" the best motion picture of 1949.

Other best citations, voted Tuesday by the group of 17 film critics of the New York metropolitan daily newspapers, included:

Best actress—Olivia De Havilland (for the second successive year), for her portrayal of the title role in "The Heiress."

Best Actor—Broderick Crawford, for his role in "All the King's Men."

Best director—Carol Reed, for his direction of the British film, "The Fallen Idol."

Best foreign language picture—"The Bicycle Thief," an Italian film.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 29—(P)—A federal housing official said yesterday St. Louis slums are "inhuman . . . as bad as they come" and a threat to democracy.

Japan's Girl Opera Looks to United States

SUCCESS in Japan gets opera girls set for a tour of the U.S.

AP Newsfeatures

OSAKA, Japan—Two hundred of Japan's prettiest dancers and singers of the world famed Takarazuka Girls Opera Co. are working hard to bring their troupe up to pre-war standards in the hope of touring the United States next year.

Plans still are in the nebulous stage. But there is a possibility that the all-girl show which draws an audience of some 4,000 almost daily during the year will be on Japan's export list in 1950. Dollar earnings of the show in America would go into Japan's funds for purchase of raw materials needed to rehabilitate the country.

Actually the company is a gigantic—by American standards—light opera and musical show troupe specializing in Occidental theatrical presentations. For Japanese audiences, however, a short Nipponese number is included.

The main item on each bill, changed once a month, is always a light opera or a musical revue in western style. The entire cast is composed of girls, who join the 37 year old company before reaching the age of 18.

Mrs. Add Johnson

Mrs. George Barrett's father, J. H. Kasak, of Berlin, Germany, arrived in the United States recently and visited with his daughter here last Sunday. Mrs. Barrett had not seen her father for twenty-seven years. Mr. Kasak, who came over by plane, is expected to make his home in Kansas City. Other visitors in the Barrett home Sunday were: Arthur Kasak of Kansas City, Emil Kasak and wife and son, Karl, and an aunt, Mrs. Minnie Moberg, all of Sedalia.

Mrs. W. E. Kemper has been a patient at St. Joseph's hospital in Boonville for medical treatment. Jimmy Harrelson, who makes his home with an aunt and an uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cozad, during the school months and who attends high school at Smithton, left Friday for New Orleans, La., to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harrelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bridges and family had as their guests

Sunday: Mrs. Bridges' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schibl, Roger Twenter, Miss Jane Lieteken, all of Pilot Grove.

A family reunion of the brothers and the sisters of the Harmon family was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ellis. All were present with the exception of one sister.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Siegel entertained a number of relatives at dinner Saturday evening in honor of their son-in-law and their daughter's birthday. The dining room was decorated in the Christmas motif.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Fischer of Tipton were guests of Mrs. Fischer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gerke, here Sunday.

Mrs. George Knox, teacher of the Clifton City school and her pupils gave their Christmas program at the school house Thursday evening and then dismissed for the holidays. The Open Bible church will have their program Friday evening and the Methodists will have their Saturday evening.

The Lamine P.T.A. met in regular monthly session at the school house Wednesday evening. Jake Rains, president, had charge of the business meeting, after which the meeting was turned over to the members of the historical society from Sedalia and Smithton.

Each member of the society gave a brief talk and Professor Ihrig of Smithton gave the history of the Lamine school. At the conclusion of the program members of the P.T.A. served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Cook went to Green Ridge early Sunday morning and were joined there by Mrs. Cook's sisters, Mrs. Ellis Hall and Mrs. Ralph Stuart, and their families, were dinner guests of their mother, Mrs. Tom Neale. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rugen were hosts to members of the 4-H club of the Lamine district, of which their daughter, Helen, is a member, as a Christmas party Friday evening. The president, Sharon Johnston, presided over a short business meeting, after which games were played. Later

Cheese Chips

1 cup sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup soft shortening

1 cup grated American cheese
3 tablespoons Fat Milk
1 tablespoon water
4 teaspoons caraway seeds

Sift flour with salt. Work in shortening with fork. When mixture looks like small peas, fold in cheese. Stir in gradually mixture of 2 tablespoons milk and the water. Shape dough into a roll about 1 1/2 in. thick. Wrap in waxed paper. Chill several hours or overnight. Turn on oven; set at moderately hot (400° F.). Cut chilled dough in 1/4-in. slices. Put on well-greased and floured baking sheets. Brush with remaining tablespoon milk. Sprinkle with seeds. Bake on oven shelf slightly above center about 12 min., or until light brown. Makes 4 dozen.

Boy Scouts Seen as a Hope For Japan's Rehabilitation

By Jerry O'Brien
AP Newsfeatures
SPOKANE, Wash. — George Imai, national field secretary for the Boy Scouts of Japan, has enrolled at Whitworth college as a freshman in social work. This is the second time that Imai has been a college freshman but today he's a lot more optimistic about his own and his country's future than he was when he first tried college six years ago.

He was in his second month at a Tokyo university in 1943 when the Japanese draft swept him into a naval officers training school. Then as a 17-year old cadet Imai said he was certain that Japan could not win the war and that he would surely be killed in action. He says he was so sure that he volunteered to be a Kamakaze pilot "to get it over with."

But the Japanese turned down his request to fly a suicide plane and in May, 1945 he was commissioned an ensign in the emperor's navy. Before he could be assigned to a ship the war was over.

Imai took off his ensign's uniform and burned it in accordance with occupation orders. But in a few months he put on another uniform — that of the Boy Scouts of Japan and at 23 became the national field secretary.

Imai says the scouting program in Japan is poorly organized but could be a great help in rehabilitation of the country. "The younger generation in Japan didn't have a good education because of the war," he said, "and most of them at present don't care what happens. I want to help remedy this."

He hopes to take executive scout training in New Jersey and in London after graduating from Whitworth and then return to Japan to train future Boy Scout leaders.

Imai first became interested in scouting in Honolulu where he attended grade school and learned English. He recalls that as a member of Honolulu troop 36 he helped form an honor guard for Franklin D. Roosevelt when the late President visited the islands in 1935. When he returned to Tokyo for high school he remained active in Boy Scout work.

Learn These Strategic Points
By William E. McKenney
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service
John R. Crawford of Philadelphia and I believe that when you have become experienced with the two-handed game of Canasta dealing 5 cards and requiring one canasta to go out, you eventually will want to play the regular game in which 15 cards are dealt but you are required to have 2 canastas to go out.

In this standard game there are some strategic points to learn. You do not have to be a mathematician

In Training

KEESLER AFB, Miss., Dec. 16, 1949.—Pfc. Morgan L. Koch, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Koch, La Monte, Mo., has reported to Keesler AFB, Mississippi to begin training in the Radio Operators School located here.

Keesler AFB is one of the Bases of the Technical Division, Air Training Command, and is also the home of the Air Force's Radar School.

The training Pfc. Koch receives in the Radio Operator's School will extend over a period of 37 weeks which will familiarize him with the organization of radio nets, message handling, the radio compass, instrument approach systems and radio changes. He will also become familiar with weather reports, acquire a working knowledge of radio sets and parts, and be able to perform general maintenance.

The training will qualify him to hold any specialty in the Radio Operating Group such as AF Radio Operators, high speed AF radio operators, high-speed AACs radio operators, and flight radio operators.

Year Books to Homemakers

The December meeting of the Brown Homemakers club met at the home of Mrs. John Wall. The meeting was opened by singing "Silent Night."

Roll call was answered with "My Favorite Christmas Carol." The year books were distributed to the members and in the afternoon the sunshine pals were revealed and new ones were drawn. One visitor, Mrs. Eugene Greer, was present. The January meeting is scheduled at the home of Mrs. Owen Lewis.

must the natural cards always exceed the number of wild cards? For example, do you have to have 2 natural cards and not more than 1 wild card, or 3 natural cards and not more than 2 wild cards?

A—No, that is wrong. You must put down 2 natural cards but you can meld as many as 3 wild cards with them. You then would have a 5-card meld and the only thing you could add to that meld would be natural cards until you completed your canasta.

Mr. McKenney is unable to answer individual questions on Canasta from readers. However he will include the most frequently asked questions in his column.

SURPRISE FLAVOR—Good, hot cereal is important to a child's health. Vary the breakfast oatmeal to get youngsters interested.

Appointment by Governor

JEFFERSON CITY, Dec. 29 — (AP)—Gov. Forrest Smith appointed M. J. Losier of Hermitage as Hickory county surveyor Wednesday succeeding J. P. Boyd of Hermitage, who resigned.

Boyd is a Republican and the governor said he assumed Losier is too. He said Losier is the only other surveyor in the county.

C. L. Grantham of Salem was appointed Dent county coroner succeeding Dr. W. G. Dillon, who resigned. Both are Democrats.

Gift Exchange At Club Party

Mrs. Logan Seigel was hostess to the Lovelace club annual Christmas party which was held December 16.

About fifty were in attendance including the club members.

The home was decorated in the Christmas motif and was centered by a huge Christmas tree.

Gifts were exchanged by "Sunshine pals" and the hostess received many gifts from guests.

At the evening meal the table was set with a lace table cloth and lighted candles. At this time a contributive lunch was served.

Games were played after the dinner and it was decided to meet January 12 at Mrs. Carl Ellis.

Planning New Liner

LONDON, Dec. 29.—(P)—Maritime circles reported Tuesday the Cunard line is planning to build a liner bigger than the 83,673-ton Queen Elizabeth—now the world's largest.

The reports said the huge transatlantic ship will be faster than anything presently in service. It may be powered with gas turbine engines now being developed for maritime propulsion.

If the keel is laid down early in 1950 she will be ready for the Southampton-New York run some time in 1954.

Read Yourself to Sleep, He Says—And Writes a Book On How to Do It

By RICHARD KLEINER
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Dr. James Bender never had any trouble sleeping in his life. Never, that is, until a few weeks ago when he lay awake worrying about the deadline for the book he was writing. The book which cost him his sleep is called, "How to Sleep."

Although the book touches on all phases of sleeping—from the fine art of snoring to how to get children to go to bed—it is primarily designed for the aid and comfort of insomniacs.

"I believe very strongly," says Dr. Bender, a psychologist, "in the potential power of each one of us to alter the path of parts of our lives. Sleeping habits can be changed if we approach the matter with common sense."

For those who want to try, Dr. Bender has a 15 point program for producing potent pillow pounds. In 15 nutshells, here is what he recommends:

1. Sleep in a good bed. Make sure it's big enough for you.

2. Sleep on a pillow that fits you.

3. Dress your bed right. Dr. Bender even goes the whole hog, and advocates a daily change of linen for severe cases of non-sleeping.

4. Don't sleep in a room decorated in exciting colors. Pastel greens and blues are the most restful shades, Dr. Bender says.

5. Keep the room dark. If necessary, buy and wear a pair of eyeshades.

6. Build a shrine to Morpheus. Which is Dr. Bender's way of saying that the bedroom should be strictly for sleeping; make it a pleasant, restful room, with things nearby that induce slumber.

7. Take a bath before going to bed. A bath is more relaxing than a shower, especially if a few drops of pine needle extract are added to the tub. The temperature of the water should be between 98 and 102 degrees.

8. Be the master of noise. A pair of ear stoppers help keep the room quiet.

9. Ventilate your room to suit yourself.

10. Try melotherapy. That means music, which hath charms to soothe the savage insomniac. Among the selections Dr. Bender suggests are MacDowell's "To a Water Lily" and Debussy's "Afternoon of a Fawn."

11. Make friends of your senses. In other words, rest them. Some ways you can do that are to brush your hair before retiring and to burn a stick of incense in the bedroom.

12. Eat a snack. But be careful. Dr. Bender advises the bedtime menu consist of a glass of skim milk and a plain cookie. If you're very tired, maybe two cookies.

13. Kid yourself along. Dickens, says Dr. Bender, couldn't sleep unless his bed pointed North. If you need a secret trick—like crawling around the bed 10 times—go do it.

14. Read yourself to sleep. A good book or a daily snoozepaper.

15. Make a happy event of going to bed. Look on sleep as a delightful escape from problems.

Besides the Soporific Fifteen Dr. Bender has other suggestions. "I have almost a religious fervor in the belief that relaxation exercises are a big help," he says. Some ways Dr. Bender advocates relaxing are by standing on your head, or yawning, or blinking. Yawning, incidentally, is good for you, and you shouldn't try to swallow your yawns.

So, the next time you can't sleep, follow these simple instructions: Stand on your head, change the linen, paint the room blue, put on your eyeshades and ear stoppers, take a bath with pine needle extract, play some music, read a book, brush your hair, burn some incense, eat a snack, read a book and crawl around the bed 10 times.

DR. JAMES BENDER: His own book kept him awake.

"By that time, it's morning. Zzzzzzzzz."

Community News from California

Mrs. Harold Priest

The Lions and American Legion and their auxiliaries added about $250 to the Band uniform fund at the basketball game and refreshment sale last Thursday night. The Lions played the games in an assortment of pajamas and the Legionnaires wore "ladies." C. D. Heyssel and Hugh Williams as referees even outdressed the players. Heyssel wore a grey crepe afternoon dress complete with green hat and fur neck piece. Williams wore a woman's hikers outfit with tight knickers and black hose. Vic Gray the referee kept referring to the costume as a bathing suit and there were many who agreed with him. The type of basketball played did not originate in the rule books, but everyone had fun. Special numbers were by Patricia Reed, soprano solo, Frank Laprise, bass solo, Rose Crane, tap dance and group singing by Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Houser, Mrs. Otto Hossman, Elvin Lehman, Mrs. Joe Gattermeier, Mrs. Kenneth Thomas and Melvin Peterman. Ray Peck and Bill Todd were the pianists.

The annual Santa Clause visit to California was made on Saturday afternoon. Children and parents for miles around came to see the parade headed by the high school band and the city fire truck and pass through the lines set up by the members of the American Legion who were helping in the event. Each child received a box of candy and nuts. Santa stopped in both business sections of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Peck have purchased the grocery store on North High street from Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Reed. Mr. Peck has been buyer and manager for the store for the past two and one half years. Mrs. Peck will assist him in the business. They have purchased a new Frigidaire self service display case for vegetables which Emil Rohmbach is now installing. Mr. and Mrs. Reed, assisted by their son Jim, will devote their entire time to their dry goods store.

The Rev. Geo. W. Hesler was elected worshipful master of California lodge No. 183, at the regular meeting Friday evening. R. J. Bolin was elected senior warden, F. N. Jones, junior warden, Marion Shores, treasurer, and A. E. Wilson, secretary. R. L. Hert is the retiring worshipful master. The new officers will be installed in January.

Mrs. S. C. Gill was hostess to the Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church at her home Thursday afternoon. Miss Eva Cavers was leader for the Christmas program.

Miss Patty Kaiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Golder Kaiser, has been chosen a member of the Girls' octet at Southwest Baptist college at Bolivar. Patty is a freshman.

Mrs. Kenyon Latham entertained the members of her Triple Tri bridge club at the home of Miss Jen Morrison last Tuesday night. Mrs. C. D. Heyssel was a guest. Mrs. W. S. Lemen had high score.

Mrs. Robert Hogge was hostess to five tables of bridge at her new home last Friday afternoon. The house was gay with holiday decorations and a dessert course was served. Mrs. Harold Priest had high score favor for the afternoon.

Mrs. M. F. York, president, was hostess at the annual Christmas party of the Faith Day Guild of the Christian church. Mrs. Floyd Hutchison and Mrs. Clayton Holt were in charge of the entertainment. Mrs. Claude English told of Christmas celebrations in other lands and Mrs. William Robert Allen read the Christmas story while the gifts were exchanged. Refreshments were served from a table decorated with Christmas greenery and lighted candles.

The teachers and officers of the Evangelical and Reformed Sunday school enjoyed a chicken dinner at the Christmas meeting last Monday night. Instead of a gift exchange each member brought either gloves or stockings which will be shipped to overseas relief. Emmett Rohrbach was elected superintendent; Roy Gabert, assistant superintendent; Chas. Albert Gabert, secretary; Norman Steinhauer, assistant secretary; Clayton Basinger, treasurer; Mrs. L. P. Embry, superintendent of the beginners; Mrs. C. A. Burger, cradle roll superintendent; Emmett Traschall, pianist, and Franklin Sullivan, assistant pianist.

At the Latham Sanatorium a son, Dec. 14 to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kniper. Mrs. Carl Wise, who was operated on at Research hospital in Kansas City, is reported in a satisfactory condition.

Cage Finals Tonight For OCU-Wyo. U.

Top Seeded Aggies Fell to Okla. City In Semi-Finals

By Saul Feldman

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 29.—(P)—Second seeded Wyoming is in the finals of the All-College Basketball tournament tonight, as expected, but there's a stranger in the opposition — Oklahoma City University.

Top seeded Oklahoma A. and M. heralded to win its sixth straight title, fell in the semi-finals last night to alert Oklahoma City 37-35. The loss was the first for Hank Iba's Aggies in 18 All-College tournament games.

Wyoming had an easy time with Arkansas, 40-26.

Arkansas and A. and M. meet for third place in the first game of the double header tonight.

OCU-Aggie Contest

The OCU-Aggie contest was a student-teacher affair—Oklahoma City's coach Doyle Parrack having learned his basketball while playing four years under Iba.

Doyle graduated from A. and M. in 1943 but came back to the school as a Navy instructor in 1944. He played on A. and M.'s NCAA championship team of 1944-45.

This is Parrack's third year at OCU. Last year his team gained the title "Little Aggies" as its style of play, patterned after Iba's deliberate offense, won 20 games against six losses. That 1948-49 team led the nation in defense, allowing 38.4 points a game.

10 Point Underdog

OCU was a 10 point underdog when it met the Aggies, but took the lead at the outset and was never headed. Amazing shooting in the first half, which clicked 10 field goals in 23 tries and a dogging defense, gave OCU a 23-15 edge at halftime.

The Aggies began closing in the last ten minutes and cut the margin. OCU started its stall with five minutes left, but A. and M. moved within one point, 36-35 with 45 seconds left.

Tempers Flared

Two players were tossed out as tempers flared.

With time running out, Gale McArthur, A. and M. junior guard, missed a chance to tie the score after he was fouled.

Wyoming and OCU both have winning streaks of seven straight games.

Wyoming has breezed through the tournament. Coached by Ev Shelton, it easily handled Texas 44-35 in the first round. Last night, Wyoming led 24-14 at the half and Arkansas didn't make a field goal the first 18 minutes of the last half.

In afternoon games, Baylor will meet Texas for the consolation title and Vanderbilt will play Alabama for seventh place. In games yesterday, Texas defeated Alabama 47-41 in a last half drive and Baylor topped Vanderbilt 61-53.

Charity Game For East-West Teams

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—(P)—The day is drawing near for the East-West Shrine charity game here Saturday, the major proceeds of which will go to the Shriners' hospital for crippled children.

Both of the teams — East at Santa Clara and West at Stanford — tapered off yesterday.

Coaches of both teams named starting lineups.

West Mentors Matty Bell of Southern Methodist, Dutch Meyer of Texas Christian and Jeff Caravath of U. S. C. named two teams — one for offense and one for defense.

If West receives, Tom Novak, Nebraska, will start at center.

If West kicks off, Rollin Prather, Kansas State will start at right guard.

The East team, apparently, is quite tentative with Andy Kerr, Tuss McLaughry and Bernie Bierman, but the coaches named a first and a second team.

Final Round of Enid Basketball Tourney

ENID, Okla., Dec. 29.—(P)—The Enid Invitational tournament ends tonight with the University of Tulsa meeting the Pittsburg Teachers of Kansas in the final round.

Tulsa downed Washburn 50-42 last night and Pittsburg conquered North Texas State College 63-49.

The championship game will be played at 9 p. m. (CST), just after the third place clash between Washburn and North Texas.

Northwestern, La., college whipped Centenary college 69-66 yesterday and Northwestern State college of Oklahoma edged Southwestern Louisiana college 50-46 in the consolation bracket.

Those two winners meet today for the consolation title.

Boxing Crown Remains At Louisiana State University

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 29.—(P)—The Sugar Bowl boxing crown remains at Louisiana State University for a least another year. L. S. U. whipped Syracuse 6-3 last night to keep the championship.

The Bowl Picture

By Jim Becker
AP Newsfeatures Sports Writer

NEW YORK — On Jan. 2 the nation's four major postseason bowl games will cap a football season that has emphasized speed and scoring.

In the traditional Rose bowl, oldest of these contests, California, the Pacific Coast champion, meets Ohio State, co-leader in the Big Ten. These teams were Rose bowl opponents once before, in 1921, when the Bears romped to a 28-0 win. That game led to the ban by Big Ten schools on post-season games, not rescinded until 1946.

Three other times California played host in the huge Pasadena stadium. In 1929, it was Roy Reigels' wrong-way run that helped Georgia Tech to an 8-7 win. Cal measured Alabama, 13-0, in 1938, with a team that included Sam Chapman, now a major league outfielder for the Philadelphia A's. A disputed touchdown by Northwestern in the Jan. 1, 1949, contest beat the Bears 20-14 and evened their bowl mark at two-two.

Oklahoma returns to the Sugar bowl in New Orleans, scene of their 1949 triumph against North Carolina, 14-6. The rugged Sooners face giant-killing LSU, a school which took three straight lickings in the Sugar game, losing 3-2 to TCU in 1936, and 21-14 and 6-0 to Santa Clara the next two times. LSU had better luck in other bowls. The Tigers bested Texas A&M, 19-14 in the 1944 Orange bowl, and tied Arkansas, 0-0 in the 1947 Cotton bowl. Oklahoma lost its other major bowl appearance, 17-0 to Tennessee in the 1939 Orange bowl.

Santa Clara, first California team to appear in Miami's Orange bowl, has its two wins over LSU to show for its bowling. Kentucky has never before appeared in a major bowl. The Wildcats traditionally a weak football sister, grew claws this campaign.

North Carolina's Tarheels, complete strangers to this postseason business until Charlie Justice came to tailback them in 1946, will have visited three major bowls in the last four seasons. But even Justice's triple-threatening couldn't bring home a win. Georgia took the Carolinians, 20-10 on Jan. 1, 1947, and Oklahoma beat them last year.

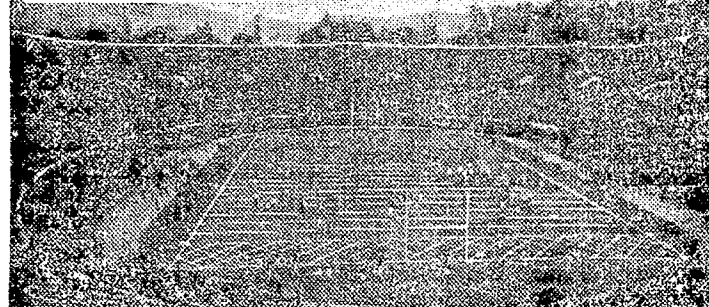

The Tarheels' opponent in the Dallas Cotton bowl on Jan. 2 will be Rice, which also has made two major bowl appearances and has two wins. The Owls whipped Whizzer White and Colorado, 28-14, in the 1938 Cotton bowl, and topped Tennessee 8-0 in the 1937 Orange bowl.

Sooners Continue Practice in Secrecy

BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 29.—(P)—Rough work is over for the Sugar Bowl-bound Louisiana State University football team but at Biloxi, Miss., base of the Oklahoma Sooners, the issue is clouded.

Oklahoma will continue practice sessions today behind a thick, canvas sheet which shields their training field from inquisitive eyes.

Coach Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma says his team won't come from behind that screen and show its football ability until Sunday.

A short workout will be held in New Orleans Sunday but the general public won't see it. The Sugar Bowl game will be played Monday.

One Point Victory For Missouri

Cagers Defeated Michigan in Big Seven Tourney

By Skipper Patrik

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 29.—(P)—The deliberate Oklahoma Sooners and the fiery Kansas State Wildcats tangled tonight in a game that's likely to determine the champion of the Big Seven conference's basketball tournament.

Both teams were pre-meet favorites.

The Sooners, who won the tournament last year, and Kansas State showed more ability in first round play than any of the other teams. They won their first games Tuesday.

First Round Completed

First round play was completed last night.

Missouri and Colorado each won last night and clash in the second of the Sooners' doubleheader.

Sophomore forward Bill Stauffer pushed in a short shot with twelve seconds remaining to give Missouri a 47-46 victory over Michigan, the guest squad in the eight-team tournament.

Colorado overcame a 32-29 half-time handicap and turned on the steam to whip Nebraska's rangy Cornhuskers 67-57. Bus Whitehead, tall Nebraska center, pitched in 23 points for the best individual mark thus far, but Colorado won on a well balanced attack.

Numerous wild passes in the second half assisted in Nebraska's downfall. It was Colorado's eighth victory without defeat this fall.

Bud Heineman, 5-foot 10-inch southpaw forward, hit four of his first five field shots as Missouri sailed to a ten point lead early in the game. The Tigers were ahead 27-23 at the half, but lost some of their sting after Heineman left the game because of an ankle injury.

Losers' Bracket

Paired in losers' bracket games were Kansas and Iowa State at 2 p.m. (CST) and Nebraska and Michigan at 4. The Kansas State-Oklahoma game opens the night card at 8 o'clock (CST).

Kansas State, pre-season favorite for the Big Seven championship, may have trouble with Marcus Freiburger, 6-foot 11-inch Oklahoma center. Freiburger was key man in the Sooners' 66-57 victory over Iowa State Tuesday night.

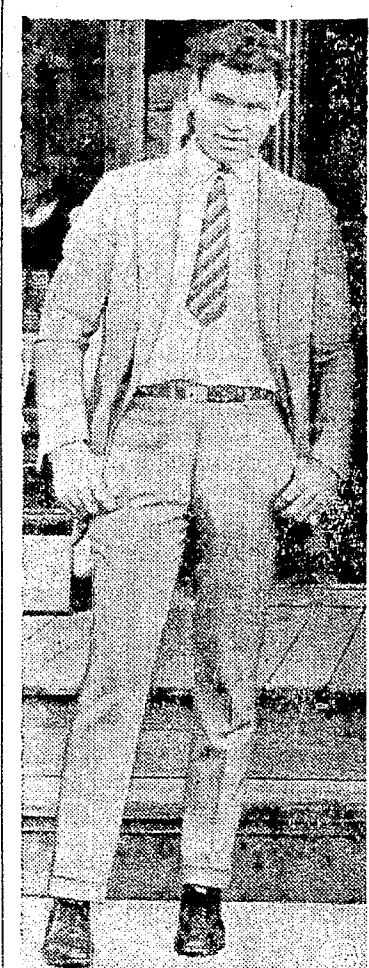

Coach Jack Gardner's K-Staters were touched for 20 points by a foot 9-inch Clyde Lovellette in a first round victory over Kansas University, 58-48.

Afternoon games are scheduled again tomorrow. The championship and consolation honors will be settled tomorrow night.

Former Grid Star Died Last Night

Charlie Brickley Set Records Yet Unsurpassed

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—(P)—Charlie Brickley of Harvard, one of the greatest drop kickers in American football history, died from a heart attack last night at the age of 58.

He was twice an all-America halfback—in 1913 and 1914—and in his three years for the Crimson set records that have never been surpassed.

In the 1913 Yale game, at the height of the Crimson's football heyday, he kicked five field goals for Harvard's only scoring and a 15-5 victory.

Two Unbroken Records

Two of his records still stand. His 13 field goals in 1913 were the most ever kicked by a varsity player in a single season. He also held the over-all record of 34 goals out of 37 attempts for his three varsity years starting in 1911.

After graduating from Harvard he entered the brokerage business and in later years was an advertising salesman in New York.

His death was discovered last night when a friend heard groans coming from Brickley's hotel room and called the house doctor. They entered with a pass key and found the former grid star lying on the floor.

His son, Charles E. Brickley, Jr., said his father had been ill for a year but would not give up work.

"Champ to the End"

"He just wouldn't rest, he wouldn't give up... he was a champ right to the end," the younger Brickley said.

Father and son had appeared in mid-Manhattan court yesterday to have charges of disorderly conduct against them dismissed. Their arrests grew out of a football argument that turned into a fight at a restaurant on Dec. 14.

The trouble started when a

Tigers Get Ready For Maryland

Members of the University of Missouri football squad ran through a workout at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., as they get ready for their January 2 'Gator bowl' clash against the University of Maryland in Jacksonville, Fla. Coach Don Faurot (foreground) keeps a watchful eye on his charges as they get into condition. (AP Wirephoto) patron pointed out the elder Brickley to a friend, who exclaimed, "You mean that old bald-headed man is the great Charlie Brickley?"

Brickley took exception to the remark, and before it was over it took 10 policemen to subdue father and son. Brickley laughed it off, saying "fame is fleeting... it happens all the time." The restaurant owner, an old friend, refused to press the charges.

Cards to Have 34 Spring Games

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 29.—(P)—The St. Louis Cardinals will play all but two of their 34 spring training games against major league opposition.

The rugged training schedule, announced today, includes six contests with the world champion New York Yankees. Eighteen of the games will be played at the Redbird training base at St. Petersburg, Fla., with the first against the Yankees March 11.

President Fred Saigh of the Cardinals runners up in the hot National league pennant race last season, noted the schedule calls for a minimum of travel.

Houston of the Texas league will provide the only minor league opposition in games at Houston April 8 and 9.

The Cardinals will play the Chicago Cubs at Little Rock, Ark. April 13 and wind up their spring training with the annual city series against the St. Louis Browns at Sportsman's park here April 15 and 16.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

AP Newsfeatures
Economy without skimping is the keynote of this plan for a small house with complete basement and expansion attic for additional rooms. This is plan 49-D by A. Raymond Ellis, architect, 967 Farmington Ave., West Hart-

By David G. Bareuther
AP Real Estate Editor
The "Economy House" has grown up. It was born last spring as a little basic cottage to meet the demand for a modern home within the reach of most family budgets. But when people saw it, they wanted this and that added, so during the year it began to grow.

Launched with the blessing of the government's federal housing administration, the "economy house" was championed by builders who saw it as private industry's challenge to public housing. The National Association of Home Builders backed it.

It was a house with a ground area of 24 by 32 feet, or thereabouts, covering 768 square feet. This was enough to accommodate two bedrooms, kitchen, bath, living room and dining alcove. Where local building codes permitted, the house was built without a basement. Where buyers' acceptance permitted, the roof pitch was lowered to save further costs.

But as the year went on and needs for growing families were expressed, expansion attics and basement storage space came into demand. Because of the preference for basement heating plants in northern states, the first enlargement of the basic plan provided a cellar.

A Raymond Ellis, West Hartford, Conn., architect, who formerly served with the FHA, was among the first to point out the shortcomings of the basic "economy house." He found that enlarging a minimum house by 20 per cent to add an extra bedroom would increase total costs by only 10 per cent.

Now Ellis has designed a "full

Science Squeezes Fat Out of Fattest Pigs

By David M. Mason (P) Newsfeatures

ST. PAUL, Minn.—Made-to-order hogs have their snouts firmly implanted in the corn belt. They go by the cryptic names of Minnesota No. 1 and No. 2.

If a big-boned, over-fat ham peevish you; if you have trouble finding the lean center of a pork chop, or if you get bacon that should have been tossed into the lard kettle, you have not encountered the new breeds.

Dr. L. M. Winters, University of Minnesota animal husbandman who developed the new breeds, set his goal to raise a pig which would produce higher quality meat faster and cheaper.

The No. 1 traces its ancestry to the Danish Landrace and the English Tamworth varieties of hog; the No. 2 to the Yorkshire and Poland China.

The new breeds were first released to the public Sept. 17-18, 1948. Within a year there were 501 registered No. 1 herd owners and 58 No. 2 herd owners. There were 9,751 No. 1's and 856 No. 2's on the books, but only a small part of any hog breed is registered. Some swine growers raise purebred No. 1's and No. 2's and others cross them with older breeds.

The new line offers plenty of consumer appeal: less-fat, smaller-boned hams; pork chops with a bigger center and bacon with lean which more nearly outstrips the fat.

For the swine growers' opinion, several were interviewed by The Associated Press. Generally they expressed approval of the new lines.

Claude H. Hormel, manager of the P. D. Mc Millan Land Co., Hollandale, Minn., said "our opinion is that No. 1's and in some-combined living areas of the first and second floors is 1,150 square feet."

NOTICE AND INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS

Contract No. 8—Storm Sewer N-1 For The City of Sedalia, Missouri.

Sealed proposals will be received by the City of Sedalia, Missouri, at the office of the City Clerk until 1:00 p. m. on the 13th day of January, 1950, for furnishing the necessary labor, materials, tools and equipment required to construct:

Contract No. 8—Storm Sewer N-1, consisting of approximately 2,500 linear feet of 84-inch and 150 linear feet of 96-inch concrete pipe sewer, together with all structures, appurtenances and alterations as shown on the plans. (Alternate proposal 2,710 linear feet of 96-inch concrete pipe sewer.)

Plans, specifications, proposal and contract documents are on file and are available for inspection at the office of the City Clerk and the Consulting Engineers. For the purpose of bidding they may be obtained from the Consulting Engineers upon request and by making a deposit of $10.00 per set. Full deposit will be returned to bona fide bidders, and one-half of the deposit will be returned to all others upon return of plans and specifications in good condition within fifteen (15) days after award of contract.

Bidders are required to use the printed forms contained in the Contract Documents.

A certified check drawn on a solvent bank (or bid bond) in an amount equal to five per cent (5%) of the total amount of the bid price and made payable to the City must accompany each proposal. The bidder may withdraw his proposal for a period of thirty (30) days after the date of opening bids.

The City reserves the right to reject any or all proposals and to waive informalities therein to determine which is the lowest and/or the best proposal and to approve the certified check or bond.

His Nose Knows a Good Thing
LOS ANGELES—(P)—John B. Bidegain won a new career by a nose. The 36-year-old Frenchman lost his nose in 1942 while lighting a gasoline stove. It exploded, searing his face.

Bidegain couldn't get a job after leaving the hospital. He entered Los Angeles County's Rancho Los Amigos as an indigent.

"Why don't you make yourself a nose?" the manager of the rehabilitation workshop asked him. Bidegain made a plaster of paris cast of his face. He fashioned a nose of modeling clay.

By pouring polyvinyl chloride, a flexible, nontoxic plastic into it, he got a new nose, a product of his own skill. He wears it proudly, touched up with cosmetics and held fast with spirit gum. Now Bidegain is fitting himself for a new job—plaster molding.

Orangutan Has Appetite

BROOKFIELD, Ill.—(P)—A two-year-old orangutan at the Brookfield Zoo recently survived a night of freedom to eat all she wanted. Tia, the ape, sat on a long director's table eating a banana when Director Robert Bean entered the room the next morning. It, as well as his office, was a mess. Ink spotted a rug. Paper littered the floor and drawers were pulled from a desk. The icebox was raided.

Her menu consisted of five bananas, a half dozen chocolate bars and several apples. She even downed a powerful emetic administered by Bean. Tia didn't even burp.

President Back To Capital

To Press For the Approval of Broad International And Domestic Program

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29—(P)—President Truman, refreshed by a Missouri Christmas, flew back to the capital Wednesday ready to press Congress for approval of a broad domestic and international program.

The lawmakers reassemble next Tuesday. Shortly thereafter, Mr. Truman will lay out the framework and sketch in some of the details of his program in three important messages: State of the Union, economic and budget.

He is expected to deliver his state of the union address in person to a joint session of the House and Senate, probably Wednesday or Thursday. The exact timing of all three messages will be worked out after conferences with the Democratic leadership in Congress.

Mr. Truman appeared cheerful and fit after his Christmas with the home folks in Independence, Mo. He said he had a pleasant holiday and a fine flight back. His plane, the Independence, stopped in St. Louis to pick up Secretary of the Treasury Snyder. Mrs. Truman and daughter Margaret stayed in Missouri but will come to the capital in a few days by train.

Charles G. Ross, the President's press secretary, said the state of the union communication is almost ready, but that some work remains to be done on the budget and economic messages.

The President's general legislative recommendations are expected to call for enactment of all of his "fair deal" program that Congress did not approve last year. The big question mark appears to be whether he will call for a balanced budget, which presumably entail higher taxes unless Congress makes some drastic cuts in the 1951 budget already described by White House sources as a tight one.

There have been indications that Mr. Truman may call for repeal or reduction of some of the wartime excise taxes, such as the levies on transportation, communication, light bulbs, handbags, etc. If he does, however, he may insist at the same time that Congress make up the revenue loss from some other source.

Any recommendations for higher taxes is going to run into stubborn opposition in Congress, as the President is fully aware. Economy minded Republicans and Democrats are going to insist on a reduction in spending as an alternative.

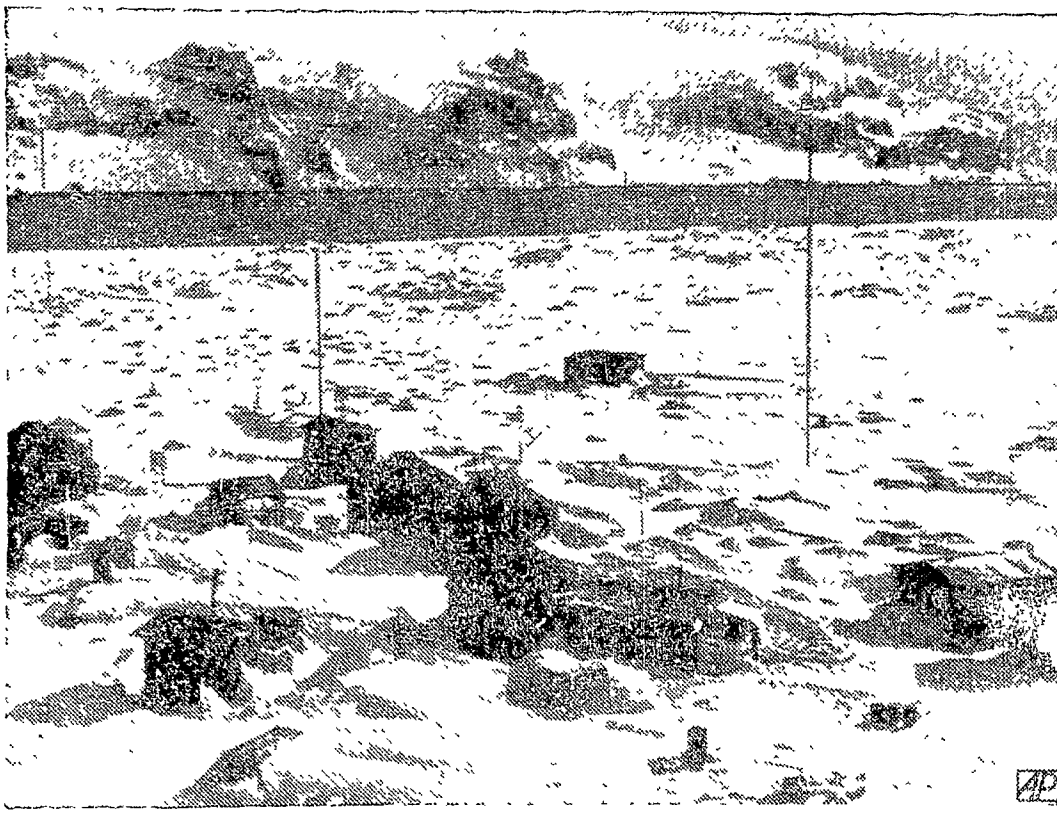

GE Makes Break With Workers

NEW YORK, Dec. 29—(P)—The General Electric company announced Wednesday night it will break off contract relations with United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America when the present contract expires next April 1.

The union recently was expelled from the CIO on the ground that it was Communist led. It now is engaged in a representation dispute with the CIO-sponsored international United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers.

George H. Pfeif, G. E. manager of union relations, said the contract cancellation notice was served because of this dispute.

Pfeif said in a letter to the former CIO union that it would not be proper for us to run any risk of appearing to be unfairly favoring one side or the other by allowing our present national contract with the UE to be extended past its termination date on April 1, 1950.

He Was There Once

HONOLULU, Dec. 29 — (P) — Judge Clifton H. Tracy asked a man charged with drunkenness: "Ever been up here before?" "No, Sir," replied the defendant.

"You sure?" asked the judge. "I remember your face."

"Yes, your honor. That is—I've been before you once before. You married me."

To Keep Right on As Miss America

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 29—(P)—Mrs. Doug Cook plans to keep right on being Miss America of 1949.

The national beauty queen, formerly Miss Jacque Mercer of Litchfield Park, Ariz., who surprised all with her marriage Tuesday night, said she "plans to fulfill all the commitments that go with the title."

But she's probably entered her last beauty contest, her father, Arthur Mercer, said Wednesday. Her husband said earlier that "beauty contests are things I hate."

Jacque, pert 18-year-old brunette, and Doug, 20, are honeymooning at an undisclosed Arizona location. Mercer relayed her comments on an Atlantic City dispatch that it was all right for her to continue being Miss America.

The congratulatory statement from the Miss America board of directors said:

"We know she will live up to all the commitments and responsibilities of her title and we are very proud of her."

Prediction On New Year's Traffic Toll

Murder Attempt Is Charged

ATHENS Ga., Dec. 29—(P)—The ex-wife of journalism Dean John E. Drewry was formally charged Wednesday night with attempting to murder him and his former secretary.

Two warrants were issued for the former University of Georgia campus queen five days after she pumped live bullets into her ex-husband and Miriam Thurnmond at the latter's home.

Three of the bullets struck the 47-year old university dean and two the 28-year old former secretary. They have been in a hospital since the shooting Friday night.

The former Mrs. Drewry, 45, went first to a hospital under guard. Later she was transferred to jail.

Warrants charging assault with intent to murder were sworn against her by Sheriff Tommy Huff on the advice of Solicitor General Marshall Pollock.

She was released on $5,000 bond.

Mrs. Drewry said she shot her ex-husband when she found him at Miss Thurnmond's home following a dinner at which she claimed the dean promised her a reconciliation and remarriage.

garage New Year's eve and use public transportation — especially if you intend to do any drinking.

2. You go on the theory that the other fellow — driver or pedestrian—may be woozy and allow for it.

3. You don't ride with a drunken driver.

4. You double your caution if the weather is bad.

Otherwise, said Ned H. Dearborn, council president, "the only thing that can prevent a death toll of at least 330 will be a blizzard that sews the country up tight. But let's depend on ourselves and not the weather man."

Discharge Two After Escapes

HUNTSVILLE, Tex., Dec. 29—(P)—Two Texas state prison guards were discharged Wednesday night after investigation of the escape of seven convicts from the main prison here Monday.

Warden Emmet Moore of the Huntsville unit said he has discharged guards Alton Harmon, about 60, and Dave Langley, about 57.

Moore said both were picket guards on top the prison wall Monday as the men escaped by digging a 21-foot tunnel through hard clay.

"Our investigation of the escape," Moore said, "revealed carelessness and negligence on the part of the two guards. If they had been alert this escape never would have happened."

Three of the convicts have not been captured. Two were captured six hours after the escape shortly before noon Monday and
